HARVEST TIME

At this choice time of the year, we are able to take inventory of the benefits of our harvests. With all the displays at our State and County Fairs, we look with envy to what others have done and get a bit of ambition to do a better job next year. Some of the changes might include, less zucchini, more banana squash, corn, and a different kind of tomatoes.

Life is very much the same way, for in the Bible we find..... "As we sow, so shall we reap." If we sow seeds of disharmony, discontention, evil, or backbiting, we can expect to reap the results. Let us be more dedicated to planting seeds of love, understanding, patience, hope, and charity, and we then will be happier with the results of our crops of life in the coming months and years.

"Happy Gardening!"

Bishop Mackintosh

TEMPLE

The new Jordan River Temple is now finished and will be open for public tours beginning September 29 through October 31. The hours are: Mondays, 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM; Tuesdays through Saturdays, 9:00 AM - 9:00 PM. The Temple will not be open on Sundays or on October 3rd during General Conference. # Mission News

Canada Toronto

The latest report from Glen is that he is doing great. Life is much brighter now that the mail strike is over and mail is coming in. The Canadian missionaries have really been put to the test. That's a long time not to hear from anyone.

Glen has been very busy and is training his third missionary as well as being a District Leader. He is so happy to have been a part in activating several families who had drifted away from the Church. This is special for him because he was told this in his Patriarchal Blessing. They also have a man ready for baptism.

After being in this same area for seven months, he is ready and anxious to have a change. They have covered the area so many times, one woman said, "You were just here!" Glen told her, "I tried to bet back sooner, but couldn't make it!"

We all send our love and best wishes.

Scotland Edinburgh

Scott's enthusiasm for the work is still great. This past month he had the opportunity to confirm an eight-year-old boy, plus they had a convert baptism. He says she is a super lady, and will be a real asset to the Church.

His letters are a thrill to receive because he is always so enthusiastic. He doesn't get as excited about doing his laundry as most things, but says it has to be done, so he even handles that with a positive attitude.

We are really proud of Scott.

Chile Osorno

It is still cold winter in southern Chile, and Jim is enjoying the very best part of his mission. Somehow those last few months always seem to be that way.

His mission is giving new effort to de-emphasizing the "status" of certain leadership positions to put the priority on how each one serves, rather than the titles.

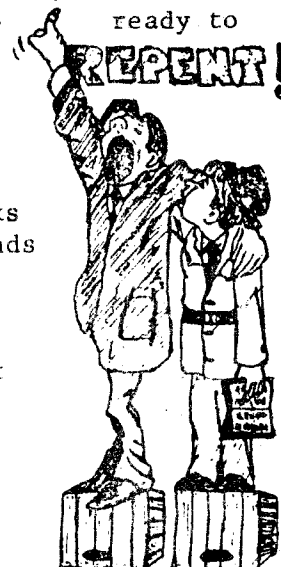

There have been several baptisms in his district lately, and they had more people to teach than they could schedule. So they did some challenging and weeded out those who were not seriously committed. Now they have a few families to work with and can spend some time searching out others who are ready to hear them.

Jim is excited about what the Lord is doing with that "pit" of the mission. He's also excited about the recent ward growth, and looks forward to meeting new friends in a few months.

A recent quote: "Don't wait till the 11th hour to repent..... you could die at ten-thirty!"

South Carolina Columbia

Every week the missionaries go to a nursing home in Darlington. It is a great source of joy for Dyke to see these older folks participate and enjoy singing and playing games.

Sisters in the branch have been teaching the missionaries how to tie quilts. Dyke says it's fun to know how to tie a quilt.

The missionaries were given tickets to the Darlington car race, but the Mission President let them attend the time trials only.

Dyke is senior companion and recently got a new companion from Canada, whom he is enjoying along with the many experiences of his mission.

Brasil Sao Paulo South

Gary's time is really going by fast. They have recently baptized a family that they had been teaching for about two months, and Gary said, "It was great!"

They have really been working hard, so they enjoy their day of rest, even though it isn't on Sundays. Sundays are their busiest days when they do all the baptizing since the people in Brasil work the other six days of the week. So the missionaries get to "rest" on their P-Days.

Gary says, "Sometimes I think that it would be nice to live here and go to the beaches every day, but then again, I think that I would rather ride a horse all the time." (Guess Gary is still a cowboy at heart.)

Venezuela Maracaibo

Calvin left for Venezuela on September 8th. The Missionary Training Center had done an excellent job of psyching him up -- he left running! He seemed confident and ready to go out and conquer the world. His brothers and sisters came home without a goodbye kiss, he was so anxious to get started.

Calvin said it was as hard to leave the M.T.C. as it was to leave home because of the training and friendships he had made.

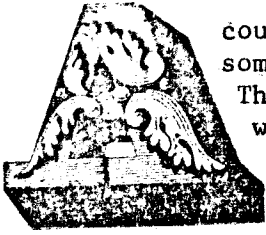

The Taylor family are delighted to have him in Venezuela with such a good attitude.

France Paris

couple of weeks ago, Jay had something rather exciting happen.

They were talking with this man who is a communist. He said that Christ preached a socialist government, but did not know it. Then he talked about happiness and how to find it. He did not think that you could find it through charity. The Lord really helped Jay at this point, as the French language flowed and Jay understood everything. He was able to tell stories about what he saw when he was on the ambulance crew and the conditions there, and the happiness he found in helping others. The guy said, "Great, you found it for yourself, but not in the Church."

Next, Jay explained the Church, it's welfare program and the basic principles in the Church. The fellow said that a church like that did not exist, at least in France -- but Jay said it did and that is why he was over there. The guy really settled down, but said that there was no way that he could change. So the missionaries left, but with a real good spirit. They had made that fellow think about what they were doing and saying.

"Happiness is truly in serving others, and the more we give, the more we get."

South Africa Johannesburg

Cory is still in the Durban, Natal area. They are working hard so their District can become a Stake. Cory and his companion baptized another family the week he wrote his last letter. Every time they have a baptism Cory says the experience you have is hard to express in words. His letters are full of determination and desire to work harder, and they seem to express so much joy.

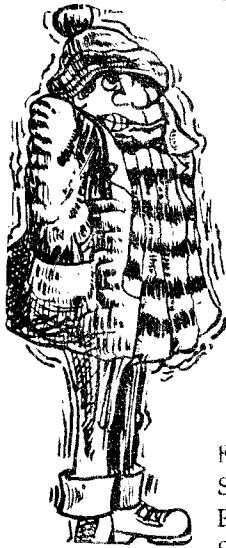

We also received a letter this last week from the District President expressing his appreciation for sending out such a dedicated missionary; one who sets such a good example for other missionaries, and with such good leadership ability.

Needless to say, his family is very proud of his missionary work.

Cory also said he doesn't think he will ever get warm since it is winter there, with high humidity and no controlled heat.

I really think he'll survive since summer is on the way for them.

Oklahoma Tulsa

Kyle passed his one year mark on September 11th. He is still very excited and appreciative for the opportunity to serve on a mission.

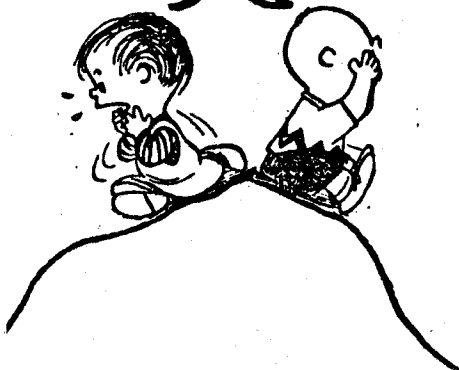

They were ready to close the area he is in now, and the Mission President decided to send Kyle there to see what he could do. They are working really hard and building up the people's trust in the missionaries again. It looks like they'll also get a baptism in the area this month.

Kyle feels that every worthy young man should serve a mission. He says it changes your life and makes you a better person.

Relief Society

We are so happy to welcome Sister Claudia Rasmussen to our Relief Society Board. She is doing an excellent job of "taking Relief Society" to the Young Women's and Primary staff members by way of flyers distributed weekly and also tapes of the lessons presented each week. Each tape will contain two lessons. We need to keep them moving along, so please listen to them as soon as possible and pass them on. If you would like to hear the lesson tapes but don't have a tape recorder, there is one available in the Ward Library.

Another new board member we are happy to welcome is Sister Joyce Skidmore. She will replace Iris Beattie as Activation/Missionary Specialist, and she is already involved in projects relating to the Temple Dedication. She is enthusiastic about her job also, and we look forward to working with her.

A smile is a lovely reflection on you.

We are so sorry to lose Sisters Iris Beattie and Myrna Okerlund from our Board. Iris has done such an excellent job in her calling as Activation/Missionary, part of which is making the Butler Banner available to each of us (which she will continue to do). She is doing such a fantastic job with it, it is requiring a lot of her time. We really appreciated the opportunity of working with you, Iris.

And Myrna, who was our Assistant Homemaking Leader, has been making those beautiful handkerchiefs each of us has received during the past two or three years on our birthdays. We are so grateful to you, Myrna, for sharing your talents with us and the lovely handkies will remind us of you. Good luck in your new calling in the Young Women's Organization.

We all enjoyed our Salad Supper and Homemaking Evening in September. We have such exciting mini-classes, and it's so much fun to visit with each other. Be sure to attend our October Homemaking Night on Tuesday, October 6th at 7:30. All Visiting Teachers will want to be there at 7:00 to hear Sister Mary Barbour's lesson. Her lessons are always excellent.

Ladies, don't forget our annual FALL SOCIAL this Wednesday evening, September 30, at 7:30. Those of you who have not been out to Relief Society lately (even if you are not L.D.S.), are especially invited to come for an evening of entertainment and refreshments. Bring your neighbor, and please join us for a fun evening!

Also, ALL Visiting Teachers should plan to attend the Visiting Teacher's Convention on October 15th at 7:30 PM at the Stake Center. You will find it very informative and enjoyable.

Lou Jean Middleton, Relief Society Pres.

RECREATION

I thought archery sounded fun this month. We can go to Ute Lanes at 3130 Highland Drive for $3.00 an hour plus $1.00 for equipment rental. We'll have fun and exercise (upper body plus walking). And, they even instruct us to get us started!

Reserve another day for refinement and learning. We can go to the Hansen Planetarium for $1.25 (½ price day). Tentative times for archery are Saturday, October 10th at 10:00 AM and for the Planetarium, Thursday, October 22nd -- the 8:00 pm show. Please join us -- you deserve a break today!

Cathy Crawford, Recreation Leader

Put your best foot forward for a fun-filled day!

PRIMARY

The Blazer Early Bird Breakfast was held on August 29th at Bywater Park. Under the direction of their excellent leader, Judith Butters, the boys cooked breakfast for their mothers and themselves. They turned out delicious French toast, pancakes, bacon, sausage and eggs. After the meal, games were played. Sister Butters really knows how to get along with young boys. She had lots of treats to give to the winners of the games.

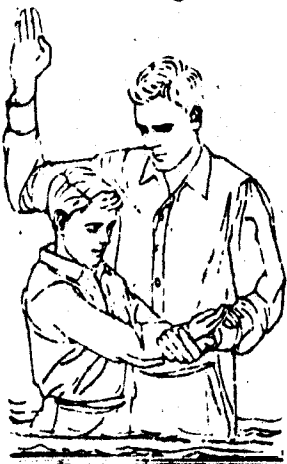

With Christmas not too far away, perhaps it is time to remind parents that the scriptures make excellent gifts. Beginning on January 1, 1982, eight- and nine-year-olds will use the Old Testament; ten-year-olds will use the Bible; and eleven-year-olds will use the Book of Mormon.

The scriptures will be kept at home and brought to Primary each Sunday.

There were three children from our CTR-B class who were baptized on September 5. They are: Lisa Beattie, John Meldrum, and Benjamin Larisch. They were each confirmed a member of the Church by their Daddy on Fast Sunday, and during Primary they were presented a Book of Mormon by Brother Watts. Congratulations to each of them!

Our Primary Spotlight shone upon Brian Cloward and Matthew Wilson in September.

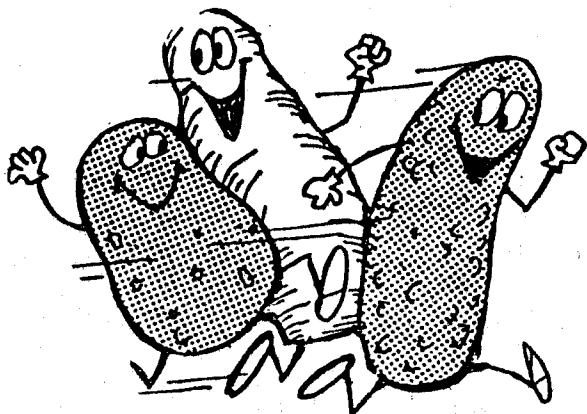

Earlene Spencer, Primary President

POTATOES !

The annual POTATO HARVEST at the Stake farm is set for Saturday, October 10, beginning at 8:00 AM. Cost to Stake members is $5.00 per 100 lb. bag (bags will be furnished).

Potatoes will store throughout most of the winter if kept in a cool, dry and dark location. This is an excellent opportunity to add to your food storage program at a minimal cost. An added advantage is the opportunity to go to the Stake farm with your family.

Potatoes will be machine dug and will be ready for you to bag your own. Please pay by cash or check as you pick up your potatoes.

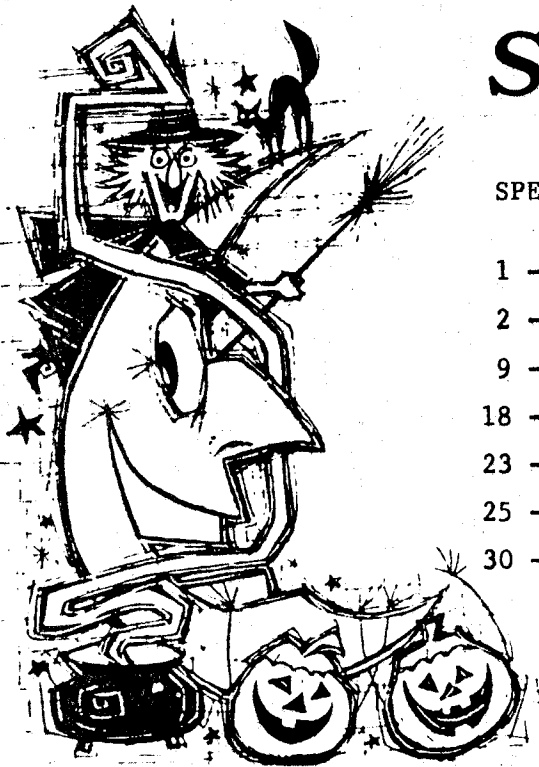

You can reach the Stake farm by going to Elberta, Utah. When you get to the Elberta Store, go south on the paved road as far as you can go on the paved road. Then turn west (a right turn) and you will see the farm buildings. If you are unable to sight the potato field, ask someone for directions.

Some of those seen among the trees and pathways of the lake or relaxing and feeding the pet squirrel were: Wes and Venna Patterson; Dick and Ruth Paxman; Morrie, Bev, and Kathy King (and Steve); Mike and Jill Chiodo; Zola and Delbert Wood; Claude, Bernice and Lance Dean (and Greg); Mike and LuDawn Redmond; not to mention several children.

Thanks, Mike and LuDawn,

Thank Heaven For Volunteers

Over the past three years, great success has been experienced in the Churchwide Genealogical Name Extraction Program. This could not have been accomplished without the dedicated service of countless Church members involved at the local level. Due to this overwhelming success, qualified volunteer typists are critically needed in the Genealogical Department to input names for Temple ordinance processing. Volunteers must have moderate typing skills, a willingness to learn to operate a computer terminal, be able to donate a minimum of four to eight hours per week of their time, and be worthy to hold a Temple recommend.

If you are qualified and willing to help on this program, contact Bishop Mackintosh.

SALT LAKE BRIGHTON STAKE THEME FOR THE YEAR:

"And now behold, I ask of you, my brethren of the church, have ye spiritually been born of God? Have ye received his image in your countenances? Have ye experienced this mighty change in your hearts?"

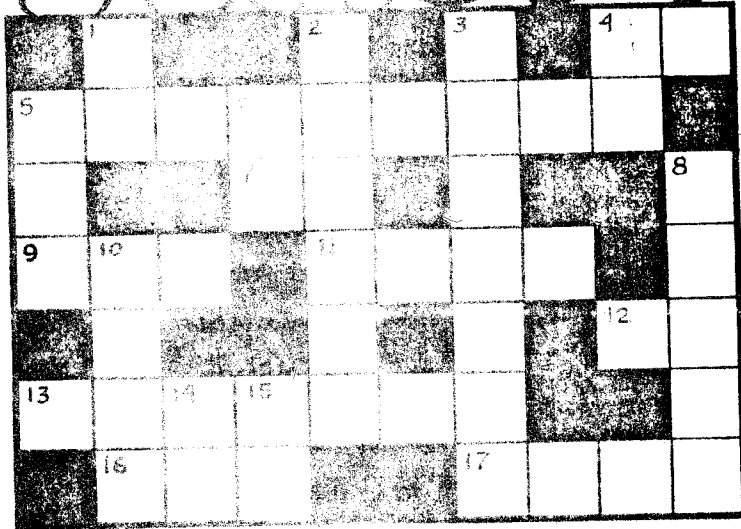

"And now behold, I say unto you, my brethren, if ye have experienced a change of heart, and if ye have felt to sing the song of redeeming love, I would ask, can ye feel so now?"

Alma 5:14, 26
