"PATIENCE"

A patient person realizes that what others have to say is worth listening to. A patient person is not so anxious to put forth their own ideas over others in a conversation. We value others for what they say and what they have to contribute.

Patience helps us to use rather than to protest these seemingly flat periods of life, being ever grateful for the good times we each have had, with anticipation for those that lie ahead; always exercising faith and humility, companions to patience.

Do we find ourselves as youngsters chewing the all-day sucker to intensify the gratification; or have we learned to savor and make it last, and fulfill it's namesake? Do we as adults find ourselves opening and shutting the oven door until the cake falls instead of rising?

So it is with us. If we are always selfishly measuring our wellbeing to see if we are happy or gratified, we won't be.

When we are impatient, we are neither reverential nor reflective, because we are too self-centered.

God's perfect love for us, through the plan of free agency, would have us patient. There's simply no other way for true growth to occur. May we each take the time to be patient.

Love.

Bishop Mackintosh

Todd is still serving in College Station, Texas, where is has been able to attend a couple of A & M football games on his day off.
He is hoping to get on the University

The missionary work is going a little slow right now because they have baptized all the good investigators and are working on finding more people to teach.

Rick survived his training at the M.T.C., and felt that he learned his discussions pretty well. The scripture memorization was more difficult for him.

We said goodby to him on September 22nd at the airport and saw him off to Milwaukee. He was glad to finally be on his way.

While at the M.T.C., he was able to see Brent, Steve, and Ron McNeill, plus many more friends from Brighton. He was glad to see so many friendly faces.

We are waiting to hear about his trip and his experiences of being a "real" missionary.

Hong Kong

Steve arrived at the airport September 6th, shaking with excitement to leave for his far-away mission. He was greeted with a total of thirty friends and family who wanted to be a part of this special time with him. We took some pictures and enjoyed rallying around listening to the Elders talk in Cantonese.

Before boarding the plane, embraces and wet eyes were a part of the joy and love expressed. As Steve stepped to the doorway of the plane, he turned with a big smile and a wave of farewell, then went off on his eighteen-hour flight.

It took almost three weeks of waiting anxiously to hear from Steve in Hong Kong, but a letter arrived telling us that we could rest assured that everything was just fine.

Steve has a companion and two other roommates that he says are just great. He said that Hong Kong is unreal—that he can hardly believe some of the things he is seeing. He loves it there, and they're having a lot of success so far.

Sweden Stockholm

John was transferred to Kalmar three weeks ago. He said Kalmar is one of the most beautiful towns in Sweden (pop. 65,000). It is on the south side of the country, just outside of an island.

John and his companion have been teaching a school class.

The branch
there consists of ten active members, most of which are older ladies. Because the branch is so small, John and his companion play a big part in the meetings.

Even though the Swedish missionaries are not blessed with many baptisms, their faith and perseverence pay off by being able to come in contact with many people and in touching their lives spiritually. Most of the time they are not able to witness the full dramatic change the gospel brings into the lives of the people they meet. In later years they find out their success rate is much greater than they ever imagined.

South Carolina Columbia

Dyke has spent the past nine months of his mission in the same place. Although he anticipated a new assignment, he has remained in North Charleston, S.C. His recent letters have a sence of urgency as the month for release is nearing.

He writes of his sadness when one of the choice families he recently baptized had their feelings hurt by one of the ward members. He and his companion spent much time healing their feelings with the help of the Spirit.

Dyke wrote of his promptings to return to a certain part of the town they had previously tracked. They were able to pick up two good families and one part family out on the Air Force Base.

As we read his letters, his love for the gospel and the people in South Carolina is evident. As a family, we are so grateful for the way he represents the Lord.

Brent will soon be leaving for Ecuador. He feels fortunate to be able to go among the Lamanites who have been prepared by the Lord to receive the gospel.

He is studying hard all the time at the M.T.C. He says there is always something to do, and no matter how hard you work, you still can't learn everything there. Consequently, you can't waste any time. He expects to learn a lot more from experience too, so thinks it's good that they spend only two months training at the Missionary Training Center.

France Paris

Jay is doing really well over in the Paris Mission. They are finding more people to teach the gospel to, and hope to have some more baptisms before long. Everyone is coming back home from vacations, so they can continue to teach those that they have been teaching.

It seems that something always comes along just as people ripen and become ready to be counted with those who are God's finest fruit. Satan comes and knocks them from the tree of eternal life and they must start over. Satan seems to know the weaknesses of people just as God knows the strong points.

In the ward over there they have 52 active families and 78 in-active families, so they have lots of work to do, but the members are willing to help all they can.

Jay is really happy that he has chosen to go on his mission. He feels he has been blessed five-fold, and would encourage every young man to prepare and plan to serve a mission.

Franklin nas recently enjoyed one of the most spiritual experiences of his mission. He was given permission to go to Cardston to attend the sealing of a couple from Edmonton whom he helped to convert, Danny and Beth Young. Although Franklin descrived Cardston as a "hick town," he said the temple was truly gorgeous with its unique architecture and beautiful imported wood interiors. The session and sealing were so special, he said it reminded him of when he first went through the Salt Lake Temple.

Relief Tociety

During the month of September we had the privilege of welcoming our Young Adults into Relief Society. They are so special and a real asset to our organization Joining with us each week will be: Jenny Lindquist, who is attending Utah Technical College to study Commercial Art and working at Casa Del Sol; Kathy Weenig, also attending Utah Technical College with a full scholarship in the field of Business Management and Accounting; and Jacque Hansen, who is working for Security National Life Insurance Company as a secretary. Also, Andrea Glad has been visiting her brother and sister-in-law back East and will be returning on October 5th. We look forward to getting acquainted with Andrea and hope she will enjoy, Relief Society with us each week. Rachelle Van Fleet has been working at Snowbird and has been unable to be with us on Sundays. We really miss her sweet smile and are hoping she will be with us soon. Two young women in this age group are attending schools away from the valley and won't be with us each week. They are Dana Larisch, who is attending the school of nursing at Weber State College in Ogden; and Kristen Gygi; who received a scholarship to attend college in Oregon.

Our fall Mini-classes are loads of fun and so beneficial. We still need more sisters to tie quilts. We have a quilt on each month and it's a super way to spend an evening visiting as we work. What a sense of accomplishment one feels when the final tie is made. Remember, Homemaking Night starts at 7:00 with an interesting Home Management lesson, and our Mini-classes begin at 7:30. Our next Homemaking Night is October 13th. Plan to be there!

We sincerely want to thank you for your support with cookies for our Ward Reunion. Your response was overwhelming and so appreciated. We sure have a ward full of excellent cooks:

As a Presidency, we really appreciate the support of all our sisters in the Ward. Nothing pleases us more than to share Sunday morning with you in Relief Society, and when you don't attend, you are truly missed.

RELIEF SOCIETY RECREATION

In order to help you set your goals to improve your physical well-being, I have come up with this system:

- 1. You set your own goal, write it down, and hand it to me in an envelope. It must be something in addition to what you are doing now for exercise. It also must be done at least three times a week.
- 2. If you do this faithfully until the end of May, I'll treat you to a dinner at my home.

More about this in Relief Society.

Young Women

Our Young Women and Young Men's opening social was a lot of fun. We went swimming and had refreshment at the Cottonwood Spa.

We would like to congratulate Heidee Wilson, Julie Spencer, and Heather Glad for participating in State 4-H contests.

We are excited to have Jennifer Major graduate from Primary and enter into the Young Women's organization. We are sure she will add a lot to our program, and we are happy to have her with us:

Heather Glad Reporting.

PRIMARY

Another one of our very special children have made the proper decision to join the Church and take upon them the covenants made at baptism. Melinda Schulz was baptized and confirmed a member of the church by her father the first weekend in September. We are very proud of her.

Our Primary is getting smaller!
Two more of our young people have turned twelve this month and have gone on to their Mutual and Priesthood activities.
On September 10th Willy Taylor turned twelve and was advanced into the Priesthood. Then, on September 21 Jennifer Major turned twelve. Jennifer will now be working with the young ladies in Mutual instead of our Primary. We are also proud of Jennifer for completing the new Gospel in Action Award. It is a special award each child can earn before advancement where they are setting their own goals and accomplishing them in four areas of the gospel. Congratulations to both of you!

We would like to thank Jan Price for her service in our Primary. She has been our inservice leader for most of this calendar year. Her lessons were always EXCELLENT, and we enjoyed her spirit in our organization very much.

Children, please mark your calendar for our annual PRIMARY CHILDREN'S HALLOWEEN PARTY! This will be October 27 (Wednesday) in the Cultural Hall at the Stake Center at 4:00 p.m. There will be more details out later. All children are invited to wear costumes, if they would like, but no masks, please!

Scouts

The Boy Scouts have been very busy this summer working on advancements and other Scout activities.

At our recent Court of Honor many of the boys received awards:

Danny Hansen - Scout Badge Chris Kartchner - Tenderfoot Greg Ostler - Second Class Drew Glad - Second Class Greg Stay - Second Class Brian Reeves - Second Class

Brian Cloward - Second Class Gavin Decker - Second Class Brett Barker - First Class Danny Cloward - Star Willy Taylor - Star Emerson John - Life

In addition to these, several more boys received merit badges including: Willy Taylor (4), Emerson John (4), Kevin, Seguin (1), Mike Spencer (1). Danny Cloward (1), Brian Cloward (1), Andrew Glad (2), Greg Stay (1), Roger Butters (1), and Vance Russell (1).

Also this summer we had a few of the boys complete the Great Salt Lake Council Leadership Course known as Silver Moccasin at the East Fork of the Bear. Those who successfully completed this very excellent course include Danny Cloward, Willy Taylor, and Emerson John. Drew Glad also attended part of that course as a special guest of the Council Course Director.

Most of the Scouts and Varsity Scouts attended a fall camp in the West Desert on September 24th and 25th where they participated in firearms safety. This included rifle and shotgun, and an opportunity to shoot a Black Powder gun.

The Scouts of Troop 311 are on the move!

A Cub Pack Meeting was held on Wednesday, September 22nd, under the direction of Richard Barker, Cubmaster, and Dick Price, Assistant Cubmaster. It was planned on an Indian theme, and the room was decorated with several Indian arti facts. As the boys came in, their faces were painted with "war paint," and then they were directed on making "ku sticks," which were traditionally used by Indians to display emblems of their achievements. The boys decorated their own sticks by lacing them with leather thong, then adding beads, a bear claw, rabbit fur, and an eagle feather. Since there is a law against using real eagle feathers now, the cubs had to substitute with a look-alike. For refreshments the boys were served corn nuts, beef jerky, and "wild Indian" drinks.

A special thanks to Richard and Dick for a well-planned meeting. Thanks also to Rose Ostler and Lynn Barker, Den Mothers, and to Terry Hansen, Webelo Leader, for their service to the Cub Scouts. There are about twelve boys now enrolled in our organization and we are looking forward to having more new eight-year-olds join us soon.

There have been an unusual number of helicopter crashes around the country recently, and unfortunately on September 25th our own Monty Montgomery was in one of them. He and a co-pilot were flying a new Forest Service chopper over the city when it apparently malfunctioned and they were forced to crash-land in a pond. Both men suffered back injuries, and Monty is scheduled for surgery to remove a bone fragment on the 29th.

Our prayers are with you, Monty, for a speedy recovery!
