"THANKSGIVING OR HALLOWEEN - FAITH OR SUPERSTITION"

I the Lord am bound when ye do what I say, but when ye do not what I say, ye have no promise. (D&C 82:10) Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. (Proverbs 3:5-6)

When a failure, challenge or tragedy comes our way, how do we respond? Do we pray diligently for the Lord to help us overcome the obstacle, or do we feel sorry for ourselves and feel the Lord is punishing us? The prophet himself has had many problems in his life, yet he overcame them without fear or superstition, but with faith that the Lord has a purpose in all things and would bless him to persist to the end. "Do what is right, let the consequence follow" should be our motto as we journey through life.

Love,
Bishop Mackintosh

Australia Sydney

Word from Nick and Donna has been very sparse and indirect lately.

Their friends, Gordon and JoAnn Granger, stopped to see them during their trip to pick up their missionary son from Perth, and they say that the Watts are very busy with speaking engagements and Donna is doing a lot of cooking, both for new missionaries arriving and for guests.

Also, Booth Wallentine was recently in Sydney, and he reported to Bishop Mackintosh that President Watts has been working hard to stress quality work among the missionaries. Previously they had been trying to put in 80-90 hours proselyting time each week, but were getting a lot of negative reaction from the people. Now the missionaries have been instructed to cut their proselyting time to less than half and to work harder on building a positive image of the church. (Sounds good!)

As busy as these Mission Parents are, they certainly need all the prayers and letters of support we can give them. Can we try to talk them into cutting down their hours, too?

Texas Houston

Todd isn't saying a lot about his mission work, either, except that it is picking up and they had two baptisms lined up for October 24th.

He is very relieved that the cool weather season is arriving, and although the days are still warm, he is really enjoying the cool of the evenings.

Hang in there, Todd--we're all with you!

Sweden Stockholm

Both John and his companion were transferred last month to the west coast in Helmstatt. His new companion, Elder Waddups, is from a small town in Idaho. The branch that he's in now contains 30 active members--quite a few more than in Kalmar.

As John moves from place to place he notices quite a difference in the way people speak or pronounce the Swedish words.

The weather there is beginning to get colder, and along with the cold comes many hours of darkness. Soon the days will have only a few hours of sunlight, which is just fine with John. He says that especially in the bigger cities like Helmstatt it's beautiful at night because of the city lights.

John greatly appreciates the support he is getting through letters and prayers. He asks that we especially pray for the people the missionaries come in contact with that their hearts will be softened and prepared to recognize the truth of the gospel.

Wisconsin Milwaukee

Rick is now serving in Freeport, Illinois, which is a small town just south of the Wisconsin border. This is the first time there have been Elders in the town for three or four years. Lady missionaries have been there, but they were transferred. Rick and his companion live in the apartment that the lady missionaries had, so he said it is quite a nice one.

They had just been to a mini-Zone Conference and Rick said he really learned a lot.

Rick said he has not been homesick yet. He got a big kick out of the mascot of the local high school. They are the Freeport Pretzels!

England Manchester

Todd is now stationed in a resort town by the ocean called Blackpool. It is considered the "Disneyland of England," and very expensive. Every time he writes home he's asking for more money. He and his companion ride their bikes along the ocean each day, and Todd says they're finding some innovative ways to keep dry.

They're really having a hard time keeping warm in the mornings. Todd says their flat (apartment) doesn't have any type of heating at all.

In spite of the discomfort, they're busy teaching and finding choice people to share the gospel with. One of their recent conversions is an 80-year-old lady who has a hard time getting around. She tried for 3 weeks to get to church, and on the Sunday when she did make it, her car got wrecked twice. Although Satan continues to work against them, Todd says it's great to see the positive changes the gospel brings into people's lives.

Todd is healthy and happy and really enjoying his mission--and we love him for it!

France Paris

The missionaries in France have a goal of every team in their zone baptizing in November. If all turns out--it would be a first for that mission.

Sometimes it's hard to get the peoples attention and tell them that they are someone, but life is exciting and interesting, and it will be hard to leave. The Lord is certainly helping Jay to finish a two-year mission in just eighteen months.

We wish Jay well this last month of his mission, and look forward to having him back home.

Thanks

Special thanks to the brethren who responded to a call to attend an extra endowment session at the temple on Saturday, October 23rd.

Hong Kong

Steve's first week in Hong Kong started off with a bang. His companion already had four baptisms set up, and since then they have others challenged for October 24th.

Steve and his companion live with two other roommates on the 13th floor of a building. The food they eat is mainly rice and noodles, and he has gained fifteen pounds, which he was happy about.

He talks of many special experiences they have had with the people and feels that they are having a lot of success.

He also talks of the extremes in the living conditions there. However, Steve has adjusted very fast and he thinks that the time is going to go by too fast.

We send our love--

Ecuador Guayaquil

There are 130 missionaries serving in the Ecuador Guayaquil mission. The people of Ecuador are great. They are courteous, friendly, and very receptive.

Brent's first assignment is in the village of Porto Viejo. This is one of the nicer areas of Ecuador. His pension has carpeting and hot and cold water.

He arrived in Ecuador on a Wednesday, and they let him baptize four people on Friday and confirm two other people. Brent says, "I can't understand anything the people say, and they can't understand my Spanish very well, either. When I teach a charla (lesson) they just kind of stare at me and don't understand anything. I can talk a little; however, and the people get a kick out of talking to Gringos. Little kids really like to talk with me, too. So I'm getting practice."

Relief Society

About 45 sisters enjoyed a delightful evening of socializing and learning at our October Homemaking Night. A delicious supper of enchiladas, refried beans, fresh vegetables, a refreshing orange drink and cookies was prepared and served by Donna Taylor and her committee. LaVon White decorated the tables with her adorable Halloween ceramics.

After an interesting lesson presented by Gloria Hansen, the second mini-classes of this series were conducted. It was such a fun evening. November 10th will conclude this series of mini-classes. There are still some classes you can sign up for if you call Kathy Clayton (943-1727). We will also be tying a quilt. We really need some sisters to help with this project.

The Lecture Series for November will be Wednesday, the 17th. The topic for 11:00 will be Stress, A Matter of Choice, and will be presented by Sharon Staples. The 7:00 lecture will be entitled Musical Stewardship. Joanne Otley will be the speaker. Be sure to see the displays while you are at the Relief Society Building to attend the lectures.

RELIEF SOCIETY RECREATION

Several sisters enjoyed a fun morning on Thursday, October 21st, bowling together. We will plan a bowling day each month on the Thursday of the week following Homemaking Night. Come join us for a fun time!

"FESTIVAL OF TREES"

We are fortunate to have Primary Children's Medical Center in our area. To help fund the hospital's charity services, the Women's Endowment Board each year sponsors the "Festival of Trees." This community effort has resulted in hundreds of children being helped who might otherwise go without adequate medical care. It will be held this year at the Salt Palace on December 1, 2, 3, and 4. The board is again asking for donations of labor and love for the Sweet Shoppe and Gift Boutique. THE SWEET SHOPPE needs cookies, candies, cakes, rolls, bread, gingerbread houses and any other delightful treats. The items should be wrapped carefully to insure freshness and can be taken to the west door of the Salt Palace during the "Festival." THE GIFT BOUTIQUE needs quality handmade gifts of any kind, including quilts, toys, quiet books, clothing, etc. For further information regarding gifts, contact Carol Borgmeier, 295-6486. For information on Sweet Shoppe items, call Marian Baker (277-9976) or Sally Quinn (277-8685). They can give you the address of the nearest drop-off point for those items.

Go BEYOND YOURSELF

Missionaries from the Salt Lake South Mission, S.L. Brighton Seventies, and Activation Missionary Leaders are planning Cottage Meeting/Study Groups for anyone who would like to get together and study the gospel of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. If you or if you know of anyone who would like to attend these discussion/study groups, please call Sister Joyce Skidmore (943-9420).

Let the light of knowledge be your guide.

"And the light which shineth, which giveth you light, is through him who enlighteneth your eyes, which is the same light that quickeneth your understandings."

D&C 88:11

Young Women

We would like to thank all the girls and advisors that helped with our Standard Nights. The extra effort and enthusiasm helped make these programs really special.

We are excited to hear that Joyce McKinney was one of the top girls chosen from the drill team to represent Brighton High School on their drill competition team.

Our Young Women and Young Men's Halloween Party was a lot of fun. We watched a scary movie and had refreshments. There was also a crazy hat and sock contest--our congratulations to the winners.

The Young Women's classes have been reorganized and condensed recently, and we would like to thank Colleen Morrison, Georgia Van Fleet, and Judith Meldrum for their devoted service in teaching, working, and having fun with the girls. We're happy to have Ramona Schulz as the second Beehive Advisor and want to welcome her to our organization.

PRIMARY

We wound up our spotlight children this past month by spotlighting Chris Crawford, a special little 4-year-old in our Primary. We have now learned about each of the children in our Primary and we are so happy to have them with us.

This last month Michael Johnson made some very important promises by agreeing to be baptized and confirmed. Michael was baptized and confirmed by his father the second weekend in October. We are very proud of him.

We would like to welcome Donna Taylor as our new Primary Inservice Leader. She will be instructing our teachers with new ideas to help them in their teaching. She will also take the opportunity to attend classes and work on a personal level with each of our teachers. Welcome aboard, Donna! WE're thrilled to have you with us.

Teachers, mark your calendar for our next Inservice (Preparation) Meeting. We are having them the third Wednesday each month, so that will make it November 17. We would like to thank Jack Johnson and the Seventies for making our meeting in October such a success and help us all feel that missionary spirit!

Scouts

TROOP 311

Our Scouts have been working on First Aid and Safety Merit Badges and brushing up on their compass reading.

We have new members in our Patrol Leaders Council. Emerson John is Senior Patrol Leader; Roger Butters is Asst. Senior Patrol Leader; and Patrol Leaders are Vance Russel, Willy Taylor, and Greg Stay. The Patrol Leaders Council will be responsible for planning the troop activities.

We want to congratulate Roger Butters for successfully completing the Troop Leaders Training Course at East Fork of the Bear last June.

Roger was there to learn new leadership skills to be used in his leader positions. He, along with several of the boys, attended Silver Moccasin to develop Scout skills, leadership skills, and Scout spirit.

For his Eagle project, Emerson John supervised the painting of the curb in front of the Stake Center as well as the directional arrows in the parking area. Mike Spencer has also been working on his Eagle project by supervising a fingerprinting program for young and old alike to come in and get their fingerprints recorded.

We welcome all the new adult leaders on our Troop Committee and are grateful for their willingness to serve.

Dave Glad Reporting

Cub Scouts

The Cub Scout theme for October was communications. The dens carried out activities and projects throughout the month and climaxed the theme with a short but enjoyable pack meeting on October 27th.

Several of the boys earned awards. Michael Johnson, our newest cub, was welcomed and received his Bobcat badge. Benji Larisch received two silver arrow points and his one-year service star. Matthew Wilson also received his one-year service pin and a silver arrow. Scott Scharman also received a silver arrowpoint.

Den 1 and Den 2 each performed a humorous skit dealing with communication, then the boys and parents enjoyed playing charades. Caramel apples were the crowning touch for a fun-filled meeting.

November's Pack Meeting is planned for the third week rather than the fourth to avoid conflict with Thanksgiving plans. Parents will receive specific information later.

We are looking forward to holiday activities! Pack 311, Rose Ostler Reporting

EASY ALMOND TREATS

(Lynn Barker made these for our 25-year Jubilee)

Bring to a boil and boil for 2 minutes:  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup margarine,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup butter,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup sugar

Grease a jelly roll pan and layer 12 whole graham crackers (3 rows of 4) on bottom. Pour butter syrup over and sprinkle  $\frac{1}{2}$  to 1 cup slivered almonds on top. Bake at 300° for 11 minutes. Cut immediately on lines of crackers.

Getting Acquainted....

The Two Of Us

We've had a request to renew this feature of the paper so that we might get to know our adult members better. This half will focus on our married couples, and we have decided to begin with our Bishop, Dan Mackintosh, and his sweet wife, Wanda.

Although Dan was born in Salt Lake City, he grew up in a small railroad town called Minidoka, Idaho, where his was the only L.D.S. family in town, and they traveled seven miles to church in a Model T Ford pickup. After graduating from Rupert High School, he attended the U. of U. where he received his Real Estate Brokers and General Contractors Licenses as well as Shavers Lake Scout Executive Training.

Dan is a super handyman who enjoys hunting (especially ducks and geese), swimming, and water-skiing when he is not involved in church work or his business at M&M Realty. Wanda is a great cook who can turn out beautiful as well as delicious breads and sweet rolls, as many of us have seen, and she especially enjoys being a Mom watching her children participate and achieve. Dan and Wanda met while Dan was attending the "U" and dating a cousin of Wandas who introduced them. They were married in the Salt Lake Temple and have spent 33 years together.

The Mackintosh's have five children of their own, plus Emerson, their Indian foster son. Dan, the oldest, and his wife Julie, are the parents of four girls and one boy, and are now building a home in the 24th ward. Karen is married to Mike Eades, who gave up a good job in California to bring his family of three boys and two girls to Salt Lake so they could be closer to their family. Judd talked Dick and LaVon White into sharing their daughter, Deb, with the Mackintosh family and they now have two little boys. Scott has just returned from his mission in Scotland and is working in concrete with Judd (he also takes time for hunting and girls). Lynne is busy with studies at the "U", working for an attorney, writing missionaries, involved in singing and Primary. And Emerson is a friend to each of the children as well as the twelve grandchildren.

Neighbors who have lived near the Mackintoshes for several years could tell many reasons why Dan and Wanda are very special to them. As a ward, we are truly blessed to have Bishop Mackintosh lead and guide our spiritual lives in a way that a loving, devoted father does. May we always show our appreciation to him by our continued support and acceptance of the service we are asked to give in helping to build the kingdom.

On My Own

We are also going to feature one of our single adults each month because they are an important part of our ward family. We are beginning this month with Jacque Hansen, who was recently sustained as the ward's Young Adult Representative.

Not long ago Jacque received a young womanhood award with remarks from her adult leaders saying that she reflects her love for her Heavenly Father and her desire to serve him and be committed into his service. She prayerfully accepts church assignments and fulfills them with dependability and commitment. She shows love and concern for her friends and has strengthened their lives by her prayerful concern. She is developing good leadership qualities as well as strong spiritual qualities.

Jacque loves to have fun. She enjoys snow skiing, water skiing, playing racquetball, playing the piano and singing. She was a Madrigal at Brighton High and has sung at many churches as well as fun places like Disneyland and Las Vegas.

Through her hard work at school, Jacque graduated with secretarial skills which she uses in her work for Security National Life Insurance Company and in setting goals for her future.

Weddings

Congratulations and best wishes to three happy couples who have made their wedding vows recently. On September 25th Shiela McKinney officially became Mrs. Jim Welton. We all share in Shiela's happiness, and are so glad that they will still be in our ward. *

On October 28th Kathy Steffensen was married to Gus J. Colovos. The newlyweds were honored at a reception and dance that evening at the Seven Oaks Reception Center.

The following week, on November 5th, Neil Glad took Tori Valiant as his bride. Neil and Tori received well-wishers at the Glad residence that evening.

FUNDRAISING EVENT

Promised Valley Playhouse Theatre Guild's Brunch/Fashion Show, "BRAVO! A FASHION SPOTLIGHT," will be held on Saturday, November 20th at Hotel Utah's Grand Ballroom. The fall fundraising event will feature exciting fashions for men, women, and children. Stores participating include Gloria's Threads, The Brown-Eyed Susan, Nanette's of New York, and others. Also featured will be the Crachett Family giving a sneak preview from "A Christmas Carol," which opens November 26th at the Playhouse. Tickets are $15 per person, tax-deductible donation; and the doors open at 9:30 with brunch being served at 10:00. For further information or ticket reservations please call Kathy North 266-6475 or Lana Williams 277-9437.

HOSPITALIZATIONS

Several members of the ward have been in and out of the hospital over the past few weeks. The last week of September Scott Kidd fell off his motorcycle while hill-climbing and sustained serious internal injuries. Although he was in critical condition for a while, he surprised the doctors by making a very quick recovery, and we are so glad to see him out doing his good deeds again.

We're so sorry that Kyle Hansen lost the fingers of his right hand while sawing lumber a few weeks ago. He's not letting it get him down, though, and is also making an amazing recovery. (He even got his deer

Erma Conger has been brought home from the hospital, but is still quite ill and needs our love and prayers.

Art Vernon has also been in for surgery twice, and Delbert Wood will be going in for tests on the 31st. We hope this won't mean serious complications, and pray for good health for each of you!

MORE NEWS.....

John and Gay Bishoff are understandably proud of their son, Ken, who was sustained as second counselor in the Bishopric of the University 12th Ward on October 17 here in Salt Lake City.
