

BUTLER BANNER

September 1988

Butler Third Ward, Salt Lake Brighton Stake

In the fourth commandment, the Lord said, "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy."

This great idea has been given us over and over again. We set aside one day each year for Thanksgiving, Christmas and others. These are fine days, but the Lord himself has set aside one-seventh of our days not as holidays, but as holy days. This one day we call Sunday. This is the Lord's day. This is a kind of Heavenly Father's Day. This is the day we should try to live our best. This is the day we should put on our best clothes, read our best books, and think our best thoughts. The Lord knows what he is doing, and by all means we ought to do what he says.

Everyone who keeps the Sabbath Day holy will be a different kind of person from those who do not. Our Heavenly Father always blesses us for doing what is right and if we will keep the Sabbath Day holy, we will receive blessings of tremendous proportions.

"And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it."

Gen. 2:2-3

The purpose of the Sabbath is to direct our thoughts and actions toward God. It is a sacred day to be spent in worship and reverence. Our minds should be free to ponder spiritual matters. We renew our covenants with the Lord and feed our souls on things of the Spirit.

What things might we do? Prepare simple foods, keeping the purpose of the day in mind. Attend Church meetings. Read the scriptures and words of Church leaders. Listen to uplifting music and sing hymns. Pray with praise and thanksgiving. Perform Church service. Prepare genealogical records and family histories. Tell faith-promoting stories and bear testimony, share spiritual experiences. Write letters to loved ones. Fast with a purpose. Share time with children and others in the home.

Mission News

GARY ALLEN

The month of July has been a great one for Gary. He has been super busy teaching the gospel; with the help of ward members. He had a baptism on the 17th and another couple as of this writing that they had challenged for baptism. The members have made the difference, by opening their homes and hearts to their non-member friends.

Once again he has witnessed the power of prayer. This time some young people who dislike the Mormons, especially missionaries, decided to wreak havoc on the mission car. They filled it with dirt and rocks, plus scratched the sides of the car.

When Gary and his companion first saw it, their first reaction was anger. Gary lay his wallet, day-timers and scriptures on the roof, while he brushed off the seat. They headed for the car wash forgetting the items on the roof.

After a frantic search, the day-timer and scriptures were found, but no wallet, $30, new driver's license, check guarantee card, Master Card, etc. Their anger grew.

Suddenly they realized how wrong they were and went back to the apartment and asked the Lord for help in finding the wallet and forgiveness for their ill feelings. The Spirit was not with them when such anger was in their heart. The next night a knock came at the door and a policeman returned the wallet. Not one item was missing. A trucker had found it and turned it in at the police station. Gary states, "There are still honest, kind people in the world; and prayers really are answered too!"

Every letter from Gary ends with a strong testimony. "The Church is so true. I love it. I love the Savior and this opportunity to serve Him."

Keep up the good work.

CHRIS SCHARMAN

Things are going great in Taiwan. Chris and Elder Corry are still companions. They really enjoy working together and with the "mountain people." They recently had a ward conference and Pres. Price came and spoke. It gave them a good opportunity to get to know him. They also had an investigator family to church. They drove for over an hour on a motorcycle to get there. They are working with three very special families--and Chris hopes he will be able to see them baptized before he comes home.

Chris got to see Pres. Price and his family again at their Zone Conference and all the missionaries had a personal interview with him. Chris was very impressed -- he thinks he will be able to take the mission very far and wishes he had more time to work with him.

Chris has expressed how grateful he is to be a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and to be able to serve a mission. He has had many opportunities to observe other churches. He said, "We don't have to worry or be scared about anything. We know exactly what we're supposed to do to be happy and eventually return to our Father in Heaven. The only problem is--are we willing to do it?--are we willing to take and heed the counsel of our leaders."

He's really happy he's had the opportunities he's had to serve the Lord and the people of Taiwan. Now that his time is growing short (only two more months) he's really wishing it weren't quite so soon. He loves the work and the Chinese people.

He sends his love to everyone back home in Butler 3rd Ward and says, "I'll see you soon."

DAVID CLOWARD

Probably the best "Preparation Day" of David's mission was the rare opportunity he had to visit Wimbledon and watch the tennis match between Boris Becker and Pat Cash. He and his companion stood in line for hours to get front row seats, and got the best in the house. He said if we'd been watching on TV, we'd have seen him. It's obvious in his letters, he has a new love for tennis. He sent a picture of him in front of one of the Wimbledon entrances with his "Brighton Wrestling" shirt on.

Dave has a new mission president, Blaine Jensen, whom the missionaries have already learned to love. Dave says that the first minute he met him, which was on the side of the road where he and his companion had run out of "petrol," he felt the love of this good man. What a blessing to have such good examples in a young man's life.

We have watched Dave grow and feel of his spirit and enthusiasm through his letters, but we also know that Dave is always be Dave. One good example is the picture Pres. Jensen sent of Dave with a flat top!

KEVIN SEGUIN

Kevin is now in Barranquilla, Colombia. He left August 16 6:52 am and was very excited about finally getting off to his destination.

He has put some weight on while at the MTC, but he looked just great. He said the two months there really went by fast.

We are looking forward to receiving his letters about the mission in Colombia. He said to tell everyone "Hello."

JOE GLAD

Missionary work is going well in the Tokyo South Mission. Last month the mission held a mission-wide fast and prayer that they might have blessings of increased success. The mission set a goal of 45 baptisms for the month of July and worked hard to achieve that goal.

By the end of the month, they had baptized 57 new members of the Church. Hard work and the blessing of the testimony of the Holy Spirit brought unexpected results and all the missionaries are grateful for these blessings in the lives of these new members.

The worth of a soul...

Joe spent a couple of P-days this last month with the other elders of his district cleaning up the ward house and yard. After all his protests here at home about weeding the garden, he close the weed the flower garden around the ward. He said there were more weeds in the gardens than trees in the Rocky Mountains (a slight exaggeration I'm sure), but he really enjoyed working in the garden and church yard.

I guess that a mission really does change a young man. Who'd ever thought Joe would volunteer to pull weeds.

It has been raining a lot in Tokyo lately so the missionaries are in the apartments instead of on the streets. "Streeting" is making contact with people as they walk and shop. "Housing" is going door to door in the apartments. The Japanese missionaries try to introduce the Book of Mormon and get people interested enough to read it. Most of the Japanese people are not inclined to be interested in religion, and so it is a lot of hard work finding contacts to teach, but thanks to the blessing of our Heavenly Father and the prayers of the faithful, both here at home and in the mission field, the work goes on.

TREVIN BEATTIE

In spite of a few recent setbacks, Trevin is still doing his best to move the work along in Metz, France. He has been there for five months now. As soon as the Church leaders announced that the Metz Branch had enough members to qualify to become a ward, Satan intensified his opposition campaign against them and the missionaries have had a hard time finding their investigators home to give them a 2nd discussion. Also, many new converts fell inactive.

YOU CAN!

Trevin has been experiencing personal trials, too. His and his companion's bikes were stolen several weeks ago, and not long after that, one of the lenses in his glasses fell out and smashed. They saw their bikes a week or so after they were stolen, stripped down and locked up, but when they went to get a policeman, a bum on the street let out a whistle, and when they returned, the bikes were gone again. So they went a few weeks on foot. Trevin was able to purchase a bike from a missionary who was leaving. He only had it a few days when get got into an accident with it and had to taken to the hospital to get his arm patched up! That turned out to be a blessing for our family, because he called home right after it happened, and most of us were able to enjoy a nice chat with him.

ELYSE VANFLEET

Elyse has had a terrific week. One of the first contacts she met two months ago was baptized. Then two girls she and her companion have been working with were baptized. She says she is grateful to see three people make steps toward eternal progression.

Elyse's words, "I know that any missionary called could have taught these people, but I'm here and I have the privilege. I'm so thankful."

Her companion and Elyse planned a party in the park--took invitations to all investigators and members. It was an opportunity for investigators to be friendshipped by members. It was a success with lots of investigators showing up. She feels the Lord is really blessing this field of labor.

MIKE SPENCER

Mike is still have a hard time relating to the poverty in the area he is in. He and his companion were at a member's home to shower, because they don't have hot water in their apartment. He said the average wage down there is about $2.50d or $3 a day. It is depressing for him to see people live that way, with just barely enough to keep them alive.

They had another baptism, which Mike was able to perform. They are having pretty good success with their baptisms. This was a 19-year-old woman, unmarried, with two children. We hope that membership in the Church will change her life for the better.

We pray for the safety and success of Mike and his companion all the missionaries. We are proud of them and love them.

RICK BARKER

As far as we know, Rick is still in Guelph. Every month now he seems to expect a transfer, but it doesn't happen which is just fine with him as he says there is a ton of work for him there.

He was playing softball when he slid into second base and skinned the whole bottom of his leg. He assures us he took good care of it, but he got very ill. Pres. Hardy told him to go to the Emergency where he found out that he had infection quite badly going through his body. They gave him penicillin, dressed his leg and now he's fine for which we are grateful.

Happy Birthday

Rick claims this was his best birthday ever. He was royally taken care of and spoiled by the members in Guelph. One lady even saved her hard-earned money and bought him a briefcase. Someone else fixed his favorite meal and parties were given. We must warn him not to get too used to this treatment, although we are grateful for the kindness of these good people.

Guelph has been his with anti-Mormon literature. Rick and his companion were invited to sit in on an "anti" presentation. Before they went to the meeting, they studied the anti literature and attained answers and references from Pres. Hardy. They found they were spreading lies and telling half-truths. They told him that and he didn't have any more to say.

Rick says, "Heavenly Father helped us say the right things all the way through. I'm so thankful for the gospel. If I had to come home from my mission tomorrow, I could say it was well worth it for the testimony I have received. I'm glad to be able to stay another year to experience more growth and knowledge."

DEREK BUTTERS

Everything is going great in New York, as usual. Elder Butters is looking forward to a possible transfer. In his last letter, he mentioned there was a good chance he would have a new address next time he wrote. The word "transfer" isn't his mother's favorite word.

I have loved having him right where he is. It seems so safe. Huntington is half way down Long Island in more country than city. I have been hoping he could stay there until he returns home. It seems so much better than Harlem or the Bronx. Everyone has told me so many horror stories about what happened to a friend or relative while there, I just as soon he never go there. Oh well, I guess the gospel goes everywhere and I know the missionaries are watched out for.

Derek and his companion are always working extremely hard. It is fun to get their letters and hear about all they have to go through to just get one or two "golden" contacts. They are so enthused. It is extremely hard for them when they really feel the person they have been teaching is ready to be baptized and that person decides not to go through with the baptism. You can see the power of the Adversary come in just at the crucial moment. They have some contacts that they hope will make the right decision soon. They never give up, but just say they are changing lives and the way a lot of people look at life, and that has to count for a lot. There is always the possibility of their joining the Church sometime during their life.

Well, we are looking forward to where Derek will be next and hearing about new adventures. His letters are a treasure to our family. They life and bring such a special feeling into our home. Thanks, Derek.

PRIMARY

August was a great month. We were pleased to have a fun summer party before school got underway. Butler 3rd's Outrageous Waters seemed to be very successful, as the children enjoyed all kinds of water fun. There were balloons, Kiddie pool games, water slides and much more water excitement.

Also in August we were proud to see two of our young men, Andy Noble and Paul Hawkes, enter in baptism and become members of the Church.

We are excited to have some new members added to our Board. Karen McOmber Gowan is serving in our Nursery. Madelyn Seguin is a Star B teacher. Bobby Ostler is a Sunbeam teacher. Barbara Blackhurst will be serving as assistant secretary. Welcome!

Happy Birthday to Rebeckah Taxebi, Kathleen Rowe, Rebecca Glad, Michael Francis, Michael Larisch, Nicholas Boulton, Ryan Butters, Joshua Hansen, Karen Vargo, Janssen Vanderhooft, Craig Paxman, Cecilia Chartrand, Ryan Beattie and Jannifer McCombs.

The theme for Primary in September is "Study the Book of Mormon." Don't forget your reading assignment this month is 4th Nephi.

A gem cannot be polished without friction, nor a man without adversity.

YOUNG WOMEN

Last month in Mutual, many great things happened, but I have to say the greatest of all was camp. I think all of us girls in Young Women loved to get up in the wilderness and become one with nature. All of us had a great time!! which included eating lots of candy, having waterfights, steam-rolling people in the morning and also learning a lot about ourselves.

One of the best things at camp was testimony meeting, and I feel sorry for anyone who wasn't there.

We, as a Mutual, would like to give special thanks to Bro. and Sis. Ihler, Sis. Hilyerd and Sis. Rowe, Sis. Johnson and all the other people who helped make camp work. Thank you, we loved it!!

We also wish Melinda Schulz and Inge Poulson a very happy birthday.

Elder Jon Judd passed on these suggestions for increasing spirituality--

1. Read the scriptures daily.
2. Enjoy meaningful prayer.
3. Enjoy meaningful fasting.
4. Early to bed and early to rise.
5. Be of good cheer.
6. Word hard.
7. Serve with diligence regardless of position.
8. Love all, including your enemies.
9. Strive to be one with what you should be.
10. Share your testimony.

CUB SCOUTS

July has been a fun month for the Cubs. Both dens have been practicing hard for their marble competition. Not only were the final tournaments full of fun, but learning to play has been interesting. All the boys now know what "histing," "hunching," and "lagging" mean. They plan on using their new skills at school this fall. To top it all off, every boy that participated received a marble belt loop award and few of the boys received physical fitness pins as well.

The Bear Den had its turn spending two days at Cub Country. They had a great time pretending to be pirates at Bucaneers Cove and also enjoyed all the activities at Akela's Village.

Most of all, we want to thank Terry Glad "THANK YOU" for all she has done over the years as Den Mother. We will all miss her so much. We will especially miss all her great ideas and fun enthusiasm. You can always see how much she loves the scouting program and the boys that a part of it--WE WILL MISS YOU, TERRY!

Family-to-Family Book of Mormon Program

We are getting the Family-to-Family Book of Mormon program going again in our ward. Just a note to ask that you be sure to send the feedback card to the donors of the books. It motivates the donors to send more books. GOOD LUCK TO EACH OF YOU!! Bro. & Sis. Spencer

Come on, Ward members, let's support this program. In many cases, the elders and sisters have to purchase their own copies to distribute, and many of the native missionaries can barely support themselves, let alone purchase the books to giveaway, so we must help them and provide these books. Contact Sis. Spencer for details on how to get going and participate.

The Women's Aerobics Group is back in warm-ups, low-impact aerobics, and walking, spot exercises. The group is very friendly, but if you're hesitant to go alone, call Rose Ostler, Judith
