They Changed Our Name but That's All

If you're like me, it might take a year or two before I get used to the name 'Brighton 1st Ward', but that's easy, how about Brighton 5th or 7th! Who are they? As I have thought about the name change I realize how proud I am of the Butler 3rd Ward name and what it represents. For those who have grown up in the Butler 3rd Ward or have been adopted into the ward or moved here from else where, we have no doubt been touched by the spirit and love that is felt here. The name has been changed, for better or for worse, but lets not forget the important fact that that's all that changed. We still have the same love, caring, and warm and friendly spirit. Those were the things that Butler 3rd stood for and that will be what Brighton 1st will continue to stand for.

TREVIN BEATTIE

Trevin has been transferred to Dunkerque, France, one of the WWII landing sites on the coast. He is very excited about the change because his new companion is an elder he had met before, and feels he will him in many ways to be more effective missionary. Also, they live in a four-man apartment, and one of the other missionaries they live with is his all-time favorite companion who served with him in Belfort.

Before the move, they were busy checking back on their investigators who had returned from vacation, and were happy at least one family was still interested and had questions. They also had a couple of Africans who have read and prayed about the Book of Mormon and have asked to be baptized.

They had an interesting discussion with one man who went to Yugoslavia to see the "Virgin Mary" appear to everybody (every day for several years now) who tells them to pray the rosary beads. They said he counted for them, and they pray seven times to "Our Father" and 53 times to "Hail Mary." Trevin says, "If that's not idol worshipping, I don't know what is!"

MARK & MELBA CRAM

Letter dated August 24:

We held a mission-wide fast on the first of August to open up the hearts of the people in Western Australia to the gospel message, and we have enjoyed some good success in placing copies of the Book of Mormon as a result of that and a desire to follow the counsel of Pres. Benson to make the Book of Mormon our No. 1 missionary tool.

Our mission baptized 27 during July--the most since 1972 and placed 2,700 copies of the Book of Mormon.

The family-to-family Book of Mormon Program is working, so tell the ward members to get behind it all the way.

We had a booth at the port Hedland Fair on Aug. 20 and were able to place seven copies and generated quite a bit of interest in our family history display. We felt it was well worth our time and effort. Melba and I have an appointment this week with one of the couples we placed a book with. We hope to teach them the discussions.

We have offered our services to the community in many ways. One of the great blessings we enjoy is teaching children at the primary school here. We teach some of the kids that have a little harder time learning. Getting the name of the Church in front of the public is a big part of our program here.

Letter of Sept. 15:

We are involving ourselves in some community projects. We have signed up to help in the Tee Ball games. Elder Cram will umpire and Sis. Cram will keep score. We have met many nice people already through this volunteering.

We also have about seven or eight girls--ages 9 to 12, who come to the chapel two or three times a week to sing songs with us. None of them is a member of the Church, but they keep promising to come to our meetings. We'll see what comes of it. We really enjoy doing it.

The couple from the fair booth--we have taught them a discussion and will meet them again and we hope to teach them the six discussions. The husband is really seeking. We pray for the spirit to direct us as we meet with them.

We held a district conference this weekend Sept. 10-11. Two members, our Mission President and his counselor in charge of the branches, conducted our meeting. We had the members from the Karratha Branch join with us, and we had to arrange accommodations for all of them--about 25. We also fixed meals on Sat. evening and Sun. noon & evening. So we were busily engaged for quite a few days getting ready for the conference.

It was a wonderful experience with spiritually uplifting talks and meeting together as brothers and sisters in the gospel. It's the same wherever a person goes--the feeling of brotherhood and love among the Saints.

Our challenges in the branch are a joy--we love every minute of our work. Give all Butler 3rd ward members our love, Faithfully yours,

KEVIN SEGUIN

After being in Barranquilla two days, Kevin was sent to the city of Cartagena to work. His companion is Elder Barton Chesine from Jacksonville, Florida. Elder Chesine's father is a native of the Salt Lake area.

Kevin said it is so hot and humid that he sweats and sweats, also the food and culture are very different. Like so many missions, it takes a while to adjust to all the changes.

They rent a room in a house of a non-member that has three sons. Their nine-year-old boys have been helping Kevin with the language.

They have had many discussions and three baptisms this month. Kevin has a strong spirit and a sincere desire for the people. Our prayers are always with him and so glad he has a great companion.

ELYSE VANFLEET

Right now, we may be seeing some rather significant changes in missionary procedures in the Church! The Texas San Antonio Mission leaders have seen fit to urge the missionaries of this mission to reduce the discussion-teaching time of the six lessons to one or two discussions (however, this is not in every case, but only in certain instances. They call the new system the "The Time Line.") In this short exposure, an emphasis is placed on having the people actually feel the spirit of God testify of the truth of this work.

It is very possible, because of the mission leader's desire to see more and more of "The Time Line" discussions given, and because these same leaders have taught the individual missionaries about the specific details of using "time line"--yes, it is possible that Elyse and her companion may have set a world record for contacting someone, teaching them of the restoration, and then observing them go down into the waters of baptism.

In Elyse's words, "We found a man and lady who are neighbors, we taught them for about one and a half hours, and three hours later, they were baptized. It was so neat to see these two in such a short time make these commitments. They don't understand everything fully...the important thing is that they feel the spirit testify that this church is true, and they were converted."

DEREK BUTTERS

Last week Derek and his companion had a glimpse at how things might be when the end of the world comes. For the space of a few days, a propane truck caught fire close by, next an oil tanker exploded in the bay near them (the explosion was so loud and forceful everyone thought there had been an earthquake), then they experienced a slight hurricane that left their area without power for the night. As Derek says, "Missionary work is always exciting."

Derek and his companions also had a special experience with one of the missionaries in their area. He was injured and because of prayers for him, all went perfectly and he was well quickly.

They have also begun a newspaper for their ward. It is called "Missionaries in the News" and is filled with uplifting experiences and enthusiastic ideas on how to help the missionaries--plus, how the missionaries could help them including an offer to help non-member neighbors in any service work they might need! That's really going the extra mile!

It is a great newspaper and a fun idea!

We just found out Derek has been transferred. He is really excited to begin working in Poughkeepsie. Have a great time there, Derek.

GARY ALLEN

Gary has had a busy month. Helping with road shows, making pizza for the cast and having an opportunity to work with several young people who are not members of the church. The young people in the area invite their non-member friends to participate in all the church activities--this month it was road show.

The middle of the month he received a great spiritual boost as he participated in leadership meetings with Apostle Russell N. Nelson. He felt the spirit as this great man taught and counselled with them. He said the stake conference was just super and added to the spiritual high.

Gary continues as district leader with four elders and two sisters in a large rural area. They are all working hard, trying to find new ways to reach the people of the area and motivate the members to help. He loves the mission and the growth as well as the challenges it has offered him.

CHRIS SCHARMAN

I can hardly believe it--but this will be the last report on Chris' activities as a missionary in Taiwan, as he will be released on Oct. 25. As his time to come home is fast approaching, he is wishing there was more time to serve--more time to change the the lives the people he has come to love so much.

Recently, his mission had the privilege and pleasure of having Elder and Sis. Komatsu speak to them at a zone conference. Pres. and Sis. Price also spoke to them. Chris can't say enough about how special Pres. Price is--he is really glad he's had the opportunity to work with him the past part of his mission.

The last week in August was a special time for the "mountain people." Every year at this time, they have a huge celebration. It's HUGE. All the tribes on the east side of the island get together. They have a big competition. They all dress up in their tribal costumes and sing and dance. He says that "it's awesome." He really loves these mountain people and hopes that someday he can go back and work with them again--and learn their language so he can teach them in their own tongue.

We just received some pictures of Chris and Elder Corry and their "beloved mountain people." The costumes were beautiful--with large and very colorful exotic headdresses. It looked like kind of an oriental Indian Pow-Pow.

For several months now, Chris and his companion have been working with two very special families and something very special will happen soon. The Swen family and Mrs. Iwo have a set a baptismal date for Oct. 2. Chris is really excited about the opportunities they will have to grow in the gospel and how their lives will change for the good.

Chris has been quite impressed with Mrs. Iwo--she is so eager and willing to learn--so humble and teachable. Though there were many obstacles in her way, he felt that she would someday join the Church. On one of their recent visits, he said, "We all felt the spirit. I asked her what she had been praying about lately and she said she had been asking Heavenly Father to figure out a way for her to come into our Church." Chris says he doesn't know why but he always knows just what shie's going to say before she says it.

Speaking of changes--as I think about Chris coming home, I look back over the past two years and I'm thrilled by the growth we have seen--not in pounds and inches but, in faith and understanding, in knowledge of his Heavenly Father's plan, in caring about people whose looks, language and very way of life are very different than ours--and in testimony. He has done so much growing and he has served his church and his Heavenly Father well. As a family, we are grateful for the opportunities Chris has had, for the lives he has touched and for being able to share his trials and his joys as he has served the Lord.

"WELCOME HOME, CHRIS!"

KEVIN COPELAND

Kevin has really been enjoying his experiences at the MTC. The language is coming great and he has a fantastic district of six other elders who are all going to Brazil. Everyone has been so good to him by bringing him goodies--so good that he has put on 10 pounds in just one month! He worked all last year and would have given anything to have gained 10 pounds in a year for basketball!

There is a 95 percent chance that all elders going to Brazil will be sent to a state mission for at least a month until their visas come in. But Kevin says they are praying they can be sent directly to Brazil so they can start teaching the people there, and not lose any of their language which they have worked on so hard.

Either way, he will leave the MTC around Oct. 24. Our family is having such a great time enjoying his experiences through letters and look forward to his actual teaching experiences when he gets to Brazil.

MIKE SPENCER

Mike has been transferred to a little town called LaValle and he really loves it. It reminds him of Mayberry, U.S.A. He said all it needs is Opie and Aunt Bea. There are five member families in the town so the missionaries have their work cut out for them. It is getting spring down below and it is much warmer now. Mike said that during siesta each day, he goes into the back yard where there is some grass and studies.

Mike and his comp. stopped one day at the Home of J.W. and gave a discussion to him. The J.W. wasn't much interested in the things the missionaries told him. They saw him some days later when they were walking down the street and stopped to say "Hello." He asked if they would like to go to one of his church meetings and the boys said "No." They were going to a birthday party of one of the members. The J.W. told them that they needed to be careful at birthday parties, because in the Bible everytime a birthday was mentioned something bad happened, like John the Baptist. That is why the Jehovah Witnesses do not celebrate birthdays. Mike has learned a lot about J.W.'s the past few weeks and said they certainly believe wierd things.

We are proud of Mike and all other missionaries and send our love to them.

ROY SCHLUZ

Roy was in Klagenfurt for about two months. He and his companion were working hard and achieved their goals. Roy felt the guidance of the Holy Ghost many times. They were blessed with people to teach. They also taught an Arabian man who cannot speak German or English very much. This was an interesting experience. Roy loved it in Klagenfurt.

Now he is in Graz and he loves it there. Graz is a larger city and has also a larger branch. Roy's responsibility has also increased. He has to train a new elder and has responsibility for many other things. The Mission President wrote a very nice letter to us, telling us about Roy's new callings and the good work he is doing.

We are very proud of Roy and the work he is doing. Roy's new companion is from Boulder, Colorado. Roy has hope that more people will join the Church. He loves missionary work and he says everybody should serve a mission. He need to put God first before everything. We need to develop ourselves. Roy's testimony is still growing stronger every day. The Lord is answering his prayers and he feels very blessed. He says Hello to all people in the ward and thanks you for all your support. He loves you all.

DAVID CLOWARD

Dave sent a tape home for the family and it was such a pleasure to hear his voice again.

He said he was not excited about his move to Reading because he was having such success where he was. Since that move, however, he has had many blessings and been grateful after all. Because Reading was having so many problems, David, as Zone Leader, was allowed to hand pick those missionaries who would work with him. He has some solid teams who are working hard and they are having many baptisms.

Dave has been allowed to coach softball and play basketball because he has an inveystigator who comes to play. This young man has now been baptized. He has been teaching several extended members of a family named Maroney. The mother feels sure that Dave was sent to Reading just for their family because of the success they are having.

RICK BARKER

Rick was thrilled when President Hardy called and asked if he would train a new elder. That meant he would get to stay in Guelph another month and also have the opportunity to give this elder a great start.

"I've become quite the little housewife, especially when it comes to the laundry. I can bleach the whites and sort the colors," says Rick. Your mom will remember that.

We had to laugh at Rick when we insulted him by asking him if he had gained weight because of a picture he sent. He informed us he had gained 10 pounds that he has not fast, just a little bulkier, but now he's running every night thanks to the comment from home. He's even been asking the members for diet plans, assuring us he would weight the same as he did when he left home.

Rick and his companion's teaching pool is growing again which makes him happy as he loves teaching. They also had the privilege of baptizing a teenaged boy that they have been working with.

In Rick's words alone, "I love this mission stuff, it makes me feel good and I like accomplishing this goal of filling a mission. I've learned a lot about the gospel, and to be able to stand before large groups of people and speak. I'm anxious to bear my testimony to all of you and to the ward. The biggest goal I've set for myself is that of gaining a stronger testimony and to keep building it, because I can see how important it is."

JOE GLAD

Sept. 11th was another red-letter day for Joe and his companion. They were able to baptize and confirm Bro. Kawauchi Kun. They first met him while streeting near a train station.

A couple weeks ago, they received a referral on a teenaged girl who had spent a week with an American family who were members of the Church. She wants to learn more about the Church. Joe and his companion went to the home and visited with her and her parents and it looks like they'll be able to teach the whole family. They are very grateful for referrals. This is the very best way to reach people with the gospel.

While crossing a street a few weeks ago, Joe and his companion were stopped by a lady who asked if they were Mormon missionaries. She had studied with sister missionaries before and was desirous to continue. It is a real testimony to see the contacts come in when missionaries are putting themselves in the right spirit and place.

It is a great blessing in the life of a family to share a mission experience with a son or daughter and we are very grateful for the love and support of the ward members in the Brighton 1st Ward.

FAMILY-TO-FAMILY BOOK OF MORMON PROGRAM

Remember, this program is an on-going one. We will send copies of the Book of Mormon out whenever we get some money for them. The pictures that Bro. Haueter took of some of you in August and the testimonies are ready to send. There is a $4 charge above the price of the Book of Mormon for the pictures and the printings of the picture/testimonies.

Steffensens, Montgomerys and Butters have received cards back from missionaries who have given the books they sent to some contact. Those families are all excited to know that some of their books have been placed. You can all get involved with this program if you wish. If you wish pictures taken, will you please let us know, so we can plan for another picture-taking day. Thanks.

GETTING ACQUAINTED _____

PRIMARY

Paul and Gladys Hamilton

Gladys was born and raised in Cedar City. She grew up loving Shakespeare's works, never missing a season of plays at the Shakespearean Festival. She attended the Univ. of Utah, BYU, Utah State and finally graduated with a bachelor's degree in education from Southern Utah State.

Paul was born and raised in Holladay where he attended Olympus High School where he was a cheerleader. Paul served a mission in Missouri and graduated Cum Laude with a finance degree from the Univ. of Utah.

Paul and Gladys met in a ward at the University while working on their graduate studies. Paul was Gladys' home teacher, so they were the best of friends two years before they decided they had enough in common to marry.

During this two years, Paul attended a quarter of law school at George Washington Univ. in D.C. and a quarter of law school at BYU before deciding practicing law was not quite what he had planned for the future.

Paul is currently a general contractor and real estate broker. Gladys is in her 11th year as a teacher in the Jordan School District. She currently teaches fifth grade at Altara Elementary.

The third and fourth members of the Hamilton family are Jacob, who is 3, and Brooke, 2. Jacob already loves to sing and knows many of the Primary and church hymns. He loves to watch Winnie the Pooh and Disney movies.

Brooke just celebrated her second birthday, but is already displaying a great talent as a gymnast. She loves to try flips on the trampoline and in the fun balls at Hardee's Drive-In. Brooke is easily recognized with her shrill scream, whether it is for joy or misery.

The Hamiltons moved four times in a year before moving to the home on Oakside Circle. They have truly found a great neighborhood with plenty of playmates and happy, fun, social neighbors.

Our Primary children have been busy getting ready for the Sacrament Meeting program set for Oct. 23. Don't miss this special meeting!

In September, we had a visit from Gideon in our time machine. He taught the children about his exciting life and his commitment to his loved ones and family. The CTR B class gave an excellent class presentation on the importance of being honest. We appreciate you, Sis. Frances and CTR's.

We have some new board members. Sister Lambert is our new Sunbeam teacher, Bro. Stubbs our new Valiant B teacher, Sis. Blackhurst our new assistant secretary and Sis. Scharman the in-service leader. We appreciate your sharing your talents with us in Primary.

Congratulations to Ryan Beattie and Kathi Rowe for achieving their Gospel in Action awards. They both graduated to MIA.

Congratulations to Karen Vargo, Joshua Hansen and Nick Boulton for getting baptized. We're proud of you.

CUB SCOUTS

Question: Do you know what is more fun than hiking to Timpanogos Cave?
Answer: Hiking there with all the Cubs, Webelos and their families!

For our August Pack Meeting, we met at Timpanogos Cave. After our business meeting where hundreds of awards (it seemed like that many since the boys have all been working hard) were given out, we all hiked to the Cave. It was twice as much fun to be there with so many good friends. Afterward, many of the families enjoyed lunch in the canyon.

Awards from Cub Pack Meeting, Aug. 27

Bears

David Glad 7 silver arrows under Bear & 2-year pin
Darren Rowe Bear Award, 1 gold arrow and 3 silver arrows
Chris Woolston Bear, 1 gold arrow and 2 silver arrows

Wolves

Nathan Paxman Wolf, 1 gold arrow and 4 silver arrows
Tyler Call Wolf
John Felt Wolf 1 gold arrow and 2 silver arrows

Webelos

Mark Zorad Fitness, Readyman, Craftsman, Handyman & Naturalist
David Francis Naturalist
David Glad Naturalist, Outdoorsman, Traveler

Denner Cord was given to Chris Woolston, and the Assistant Denner Cord to Nick Rothmeier.

We also received 14 patches for Historical Pioneer Walk and six for Wheeler Farm as well as 16 belt loops for marbles.

YOUNG WOMEN

Other than having to go back to school, we've had a great time.

We had a cake decorating party that was a blast. All the girls baked a cake and then gathered together on the 14th and decorated them. Then they took them to someone in the ward. It was fun!

We wish a Happy Birthday to Kathi Rowe, Jennifer Felt, Tina Zorad and Heather Chartrand.

A man would do nothing if he waited until he could do it so well that no one could find fault.

SCOUTS

This month in Scouts we went on a district camp to Park City. There were some singing performers that night. The next day we played some games. There were 5,000 to 8,000 scouts at the camp and they were all wearing red hats provided by the district!

A New Name -

After direction from general and regional church officers, the wards in our stake were re-named during our Stake Conference held Sept. 11. Our ward, the former Butler 3rd Ward was renamed the Brighton 1st Ward. We will continue the many fine traditions of the Butler 3rd Ward, but now under a new name and under a new banner. Thus, the Brighton Banner becomes the name of this publication.

CONGRATS

Kristen Gygi took 2nd place in Young Art Festival at the State Fair performing on her flute.

Roger Butters received a vote of support for his ordination to the office of elder.

Our congratulations go to Karen Vargo and Joshua Hansen who were baptized and confirmed.

After a week of auditions, Amy Copeland got a major part in the Butler School play and also made the performing group of Clayton Entertainers.

Kyle Copeland is on the Brighton JV football team, currently undefeated.

Howard Glad recently received a service award from IBM. It's his 3rd and will be attending the award ceremony in Miami.

Brandon Woolston was elected Studentbody Vice President at Butler Middle and is president of his seminary class--those leadership qualities showing through again.

Congrats to Sarah Weenig who has joined the cast of "Girl Crazy"--a 30's musical filled with Gershwin tunes playing at the Utah Theatre. Remaining show dates are Oct. 13 at 7:30 and Oct. 15 at 2 PM. Call 532-6000 for more information.

ENVY - Dick and Dee Scharman are leaving Oct. 23 to pick up Chris, their son from his mission in Taiwan.

BABY NEWS

Neil and Tori Glad welcomed a baby boy, Michael, weighing 9 lbs. 15 ozs. early in August. Neil is in Helsinki, England working as a diplomatic courier for the U.S. Embassy. He goes into Moscow, Russia once a week.

Paul and Nancy Glad had a baby boy, Derek, born the first part of May.

Eldon and Donna Bates are the proud grandparents of Jena Lee Beadles, born to their daughter Edna and Jim Beadles on Sept. 23.

Don & Lee Herzog are the proud grandparents of Shantelle Herzog, born to Ross and Sherie Herzog on Sept. 16.

Maitland and Earlene Spencer welcome a grandson, born to Lynn & Pamela Spencer. He came six weeks early on September 26, but is just fine.

Terry and Shirleen Hansen are the proud grandparents of Kory Keith DeHart, born to their daughter and son-in-law Jacque and Kurt on Sept. 13. By the time Kory was 13 days old, he had already experienced choking on a funfruit given him by his 2-yr-old sister and a week at Primary Children's Hospital suffering from spinal meningitis. He has fully recovered from both. He gave all quite a scare, but is doing fine.

Terry Seguin and his wife Patty have welcomed a new baby girl, 3 weeks early. Her name is Mykaleen Charity Seguin.

NOTICE

New devices are available for use during Sacrament Meeting for those who have difficulty hearing. Check with one of the ushers if you want to use these new aids.

Kent Duke, Charlotte Crawford's son, will enter the Air Force on Oct. 12 and enter training at Lackland Air Force Base in Texas.

During the recent stake conference, Pres. Black spoke of the importance of the practice of fasting, and of the importance of the fast offering. It is the Lord's way of providing funds to take care of needy in our area. He informed us that the level of donations has been declining and that our stake is no longer self-sustaining in the use of those funds. Each family has been counseled to consider carefully its obligation to help those less fortunate and bring up that donation level, so we don't have to borrow on general church funds to support our brothers and sisters within our stake.

Girls' Volleyball team (ages 12-18) needs your support. They will be playing games Oct. 11 and 20 at 4:45 PM. Let's go by the chapel and cheer them on. They practice Mondays at 4 PM.

Extra copies of Church manuals not being used for classes any longer can be picked up in the library if you can use them for home use.

WEDDING BELLS

John Gygi married Tracy Lee Glenn on Oct. 5 at the Salt Lake Temple. Their reception was held that night at the Heritage House. Congratulations!!

Kathy Hawkes will marry Jed Hanson in the Salt Lake Temple on October 14. Jed is the son of Dennis and Janice Hanson, former 3rd Wardens.

Quinton Glad is engaged to Suzanne Robins. Marriage is to be in the Salt Lake Temple on January 21, 1989.

On Oct. 23, the Primary children will present the program at Sacrament Meeting. It will be a most touching and enjoyable program.
