Brighton 1st Ward, Salt Lake Brighton Stake

November 1988 edition

Ralph Waldo Emerson once said, "In dealing with my child, my Latin and Greek, my accomplishments and my money stead me nothing. They are all lost on him; but as much soul as I have, avails."

"If I am merely willful, he sets his will against mine, one for one, and leaves me, if I please, the degradation of beating him by my superiority of strength.

"But if I renounce my will and act for the soul, setting that up as umpire between us two, out of his young eyes looks the same soul; he reveres and loves with me."

Emerson, long before his time, understood what only now is commonly talked about in human relations. And that is that degrees, power, parenthood, learning, status, money and other things that do not reflect the deepest spirit in man, offer no challenge to our children. Children have a special way of weeding out the unimportant. That which we are is reflected in our eyes and mannerisms and our children feel this with their souls. They can't verbalize their feelings, they can only react from within.

The opportunity of "parenting" can be one of the most rewarding experiences in our earthly life. To be good looking on both the outside and the inside should be the goal. To be able to look soul to soul and see warmth, love, compassion, concern, tenderness and a desire for friendship are goals worth of seeking.

In all our dealings we should, as Emerson said, "Renounce my will and act for the soul."

GARY ALLEN

ROY SCHULZ

For the month of October, the missionaries in Gary's district have dedicated themselves to reaching all the members in the area; active, as well as inactive. Their goal is to have a Super Sunday with 100% attendance at Sacrament Meeting. Gary has been coordinating with the ward leaders so all members are contacted. Pres. and Sis. Neal were the main speakers. It has been a spiritual challenge to stay in tune at all times, so the Lord could guide and direct them in their efforts. This is a rural area and the members are scattered in every direction. We have been praying for their success. We anxiously awaited the letter. It's with very happy, grateful hearts that we are able to report that it truly was a SUPER SUNDAY.

Gary feels that things will start to pick up now and that doors will be opened and they will have people to teach. The spirit of missionary work has been rekindled in Moncks Corner. He prays that in the near future baptism white will become the popular color.

South Carolina is also a deer hunting state. They just use different methods-- Hound dogs and shot guns to bag their buck. The deer are not as large, but everyone is just as excited with attacks of buck fever common. Gary hasn't had an attack. He said he will wait a year. He and the other elders have been invited to go coon hunting with the Ward Mission Leader. We are waiting to find out what happened.

Gary closed his letter this way..."Things are great! I love the Lord and his Son Jesus Christ. I love the work!"

Elder Gary Allen

Moncks Corner, S.C. 29461

Roy has now a very hard-working companion with whom it is fun to do missionary work--the best work on earth.

Roy and his companion had to change apartments. So they put out a written note to find an apartment. It said: "You can help. We are two students here in Austria for two years for the Church of Jesus Christ, called the Mormons. We are looking for an apartment in Graz. We can pay up to 3,200.00 per month. Do you know about a place, please call us before 9 am or after 10 pm.

A young man got hold of it and called the missionaries just to find out about the church. That was exciting for the missionaries. The Lord is taking care of his missionaries. There is a lot to do to bring the gospel to all people. A mission is great.

The Elders are also standing on the street with posters and missionary materials to talk to people about the gospel. They are also teaching a lady with a very strong Hungarian accent. She was looking for the missionaries to learn about the church with her family. They live 70 km away, so that is quite a ride for the missionaries to teach. It is good to see there are some people anxious to find the truth.

Four days after they had called the missionaries, they had accepted the challenge to baptism.

Roy is very happy to work for the Lord. He feels very blessed and has learned so much out there. Roy loves missionary work. He says Hello to all people in the ward. He loves you all..

KEVIN COPELAND

Kevin writes, "I can't believe how fast these two months have gone--looking back on it. I have learned more in here in two months than I think I ever have in my whole life. I can't believe how much the Lord is helping me learn a new language. For example, I made it a personal goal to memorize every vocabulary list in the book, which is over a 1,000 words. In a day and a half, I memorized nearly 150 words. The thing of it is--I remember them. When I was in school, it seemed like I would memorize something and it would stay for a day or two; but when I memorize here, it is there when I need it."

On Thursday, Kevin notified us that he has now been called to the San Bernardino, Calif. Mission until his visa comes from Brazil. They are very slow at issuing them and so he will stay in Calif. for an undetermined period of time until the visa arrives. He is really excited to be able to serve a stateside mission plus a foreign mission. But now that he has worked so hard on his language, he hopes they will be able to get to Brazil as soon as possible. He left for Calif. on Oct. 27.

DANNY LARISCH

England has a long postal strike, so we did not get any mail from Danny for almost two months. But finally on Oct. 20, a letter came.

Danny is doing extremely well. He says, "I am having a wonderful time on my mission. I love it. I have been having a lot of wonderful experiences that really make it great. Last night we had an experience that I will never forget. Here is one for the Brighton Banner. I never thought it would happen, at least not on my mission. But I got to do some work for the dead.

My companion and I conducted a funeral service. That's right...we were tracting last night and we got to this lady's house and she was really nice, but I could tell she was just about to send us away. Then I asked her if we could come back and share a message with her. She asked, "About what?"

I asked her if she has been wondering what happens to us when we die. Then she gave me a real surprised look and said that her family has been thinking about that quite a lot the past few days. Then she pointed to a small black bag on the ground and began to tell us how the family cat Tigger got hit by a car, and that she was really upset and did not want to go out and dig a hole.

So I offered to do it and I told her that we even do funeral services too. So we went around the back and dug the hole. And one of the kids laid the bag in it. It was so cute, because he sat there for a while in silence. Then we had a song and a scripture. Seeing that this is a perfect opportunity to teach, so we told them about life after death. Then we said a few kind words, and dedicated the grave. It was a great funeral, the kids were crying and everything. It was a closed casket though, because Tigger had been dead for five days. And Monday we are going back to teach the gospel to the family"

Thank you for sharing this story with us, Danny. We love you.

KEVIN SEGUIN

We received a tape and three letters from Kevin in the last two weeks and were so glad to get all of them. The climate seems to be his biggest challenge right now. The heat and humidity seem to give him a lot of headaches. He said he is really going to miss the snow.

His companion and he are the top missionaries in their mission. He has had 17 baptisms. The people are very lazy there and they have to work real hard with them to make them understand what the church is all about and what a difference it would make in their lives.

They are too poor to pay for the bus to go to church, so Kevin and his companion pay their bus fare. One of the families they go to have five people living on one small room, with no plumbing or electricity.

Kevin will be moving into a smaller room in the home where they live, but he said it at least has a window which will make it better.

He knows the Lord is with him at all times and wants to do a great job in the mission field. We know he will.

RICK BARKER

Much to our surprise, Rick confesses that he loves Conference and just can't seem to get enough of it. In fact, he didn't miss a single session.

Rick and his companion were having dinner one night several weeks ago when a newly baptized member called and asked if they would like to teach a discussion to a friend of hers. It just so happens they are students at the college in Guelph and they had to go to the dorms to do the teaching.

Rick says, "It wasn't as scary as it could have been 'cause they did have a chaperone, but it was great 'cause the other students in the dorms were asking questions. To make along story short, they baptized her on the 9th of October. She was golden--no Word of Wisdom problems, had been praying continuously and read tons. It was a privilege to teach her."

A couple from Rick's mission called us on their way home. I asked them if Rick was doing as well as we thought he was, and she let me know they had adopted him and he was doing wonderfully well.

MIKE SPENCER

Since I wrote about Mike last month, he has a new companion who is a North American. They get along great together, and are working hard. One week they gave 17 discussions which was more than they gave all the time with Mike's last companion. The week he wrote they had already given 11 discussions and they still had four more days to go.

Sunday, they were going to have three baptisms, maybe four. They maybe is a 13-year-old girl who wanted to get baptized, but her folks didn't want her to. The reason she wanted to start the discussions was that she saw the missionaries riding their bikes, and because they looked so different (good and wholesome), she wanted to find out about the church. She knows it is true. She just needs her parents' permission to join.

The missionaries have a good reputation in that town and they are teaching several families.

So much for the good news. Now Mike has been transferred and his companion is another native Argentine. We haven't heard how they are getting along--we hope he is a fellow who wants to work hard.

The U.S. isn't the only place that needs moisture. Mike had been there five months before it rained. Then it rained for several days. He isn't much for riding bikes in the rain.

Good luck to Mike and all the missionaries. We miss you and love you.

DEREK BUTTERS

Elder Derek began his last letter by saying, "Life in Poughkeepsie just keeps getting better and better! You've got to love missions!" Those two sentences say everything about Derek's mission. He loves it!

He and his companion have spent hours tracting and teaching. Plus they enjoyed helping a member and her non-member husband catch up on work at their sawmill. They figured cutting wood and helping him make boards was a great way to fellowship.

Derek says the members in his area are the greatest. They provide meals and investigators. That is a perfect combination!

His guardian angel is taking good care of him. They had to go visit a family in Harlem--and they weren't even bothered, mugged or yelled at!

It is getting colder in New York, but they just bundle up and keep going.

Keep up the good work, Derek.

TREVIN BEATTIE

Trevin's news is about a month old; but it's still exciting. In his latest letter he writes:

"The past week's finished off superbly on Fast Sunday (Oct. 2) where we heard some awesome testimonies (one from a non-member's boy), taught the 2nd discussion to a friend of a member and set a baptismal date, then saw someone else get baptized after the meetings! With experiences like that, I just have to say again, I love being a missionary!"

"...that member's friend we taught is one of the five young men this member brought to Family Home Evening last week. The members here are super cool in helping the work progress. Another recent convert has been working with her parents and they too will soon join the church. All this will help us enormously when we open up a new branch here in a month or so. At the moment, we have to commute to a ward an hour away.

"But along with this progress there is also much opposition, as in all things...people in general here are very closed, and I'm sure it's because they have been annoyed too much by the Jehovah's Witnesses. It appears that our surest chances are through members.

"Have you all done some member missionary work recently?"

"By the way, one day last week the sky was actually sunny! For the morning, anyway.!"

Keep up the great work, Trevin!

FAMILY TO FAMILY BOOK OF MORMON PROGRAM

People in the ward are getting cards telling that their Books of Mormon are being received. Blackhursts had a letter from a man who have been given one of their books, thanking them for it.

We are planning to have another picture-taking day on Nov. 13. It will be right after the block of meetings, and Bro. Haueter will take pictures on the stage. Several families have already taken advantage of these opportunities to get involved with this program. Here is another chance to begin giving Books of Mormon to potential members of the church.

As President Kimball used to say, "Do it!" You'll be glad you did.

JOE GLAD

Word from the Tokyo South Mission is that everything is going well. After seeing their goal of a baptism on Sept. 11, Joe and his companion repeated on Oct. 2 with the baptism of Bro. Sato Kyodai and his confirmation as a member of the Church of Jesus Christ.

Joe writes, "September was a very wet month. Besides the two baptisms so close together, it rained all month. In fact, there were only two days in the month that it didn't rain."

All we can say to Joe is that into every life a little rain must fall. Thirty years ago in the Northwestern States Mission we never went without our rain coats.

The Tokyo South Mission has set a goal of one-for-one in December--one baptism for every missionary. Joe and his companion are working hard with their contacts to reach their goal and would appreciate thje faith and prayers of the Brighton 1st Ward members on their behalf. Joe thinks that would be a great finish to his assignment in thje Tokyo South Mission. He expresses his love and appreciation for all of the members of our ward and for their prayers and support.

ELYSE VANFLEET

In the last location she was in, Elyse was told that she was baptizing as many as the highest-baptizing elders in the area, so we are justly proud of her accomplishments, work and energy. There was as great reluctance for her to depart from the vicinity where she was working with the Spanish people. But of late, after being in San Antonio exclusively with the White population, she has decided that the whites are so delightful to work with, that she does not wish to return to the Spanish now! So it appears that different assignments are coming her way that are beneficial to her progress.

Elyse wrote in her last letter "We stopped the car and talked to two ladies who were sitting outside talking in the neighborhood. We gave them both a copy of the Book of Mormon and made return appointments. We drove by a man standing at the bus stop, parked, and taught him about the Book of Mormon and Joseph Smith. He accepted and asked if we could come back for a full discussion." Missionary work is very fascinating for Elyse.

RELIEF SOCIETY

We are so glad to welcome Sis. Stella Berhold as the Homemaking Leader. We are sure she will have lots of fun and educational things for us to do.

We have really enjoyed meeting with the Priesthood this month. We always appreciate the support they give us.

Our Visiting Teachers have been doing a great job of contacting the sisters of the ward. They always bring their love for the sisters they visit. We would like to give them a special Thank You and say "Job Well Done."

We have excellent teachers in Relief Society and are so grateful for them.

May the Lord bless each of you sisters this month, that you will be able to do the things that He would have you do, that you may gain the blessings he has promised.

YOUNG WOMEN

This month in Young Women, we had a special evening, called "Young Women in Excellence." The opening was a song by the Young Women leaders. We were able to see the different talents by the girls. There were quilts, covers for books, embroidery and a delicious peach cobbler, just to name a few. After each girl had told about their goals, we had the pleasure of a dance and song presented by us by the Young Women.

We were also invited to a dance and Spook Alley, hosted by a Murray Ward (Copeland's old ward).

We would like to wish Happy Birthday to Angie Feldt (14) and Chrisanne Hilyard (16).

CUB SCOUTS

Tennis Anyone?

With the help of Bro. Bill Allen, all the Cub Scouts and their families spent Pack Meeting learning how to play tennis. After an evening of throwing, catching and learning how to lean into a serve, everyone was ready to really get into the sport. If the Cubs keep practicing, they can earn a Sports Award and Pin.

There were so many awards given out again this month--Congratulations, Cubs!!!--you are really doing great!!

GETTING ACQUAINTED

The Richard and Kimberlee Zorad family

Richard was born in Santa Monica, Calif., in what he jokingly likes to call the Marcus Welby Hospital, where the series was filmed. At the age of 8, he moved to LaVern, Calif. which is now called Claremont.

Although Richard did not excel in high school, he did so afterward, going back to college three years ago, majoring in industrial arts. After putting four years into two, he graduated 1/800th of a point from Summa Cum Laude and was nominated for four other awards. We were really proud of him and very happy when it was all over! He was hired at Olympus High School as the woodshop and computer drafting teacher last year, then moved on to become a civil engineer for the Utah National Guard where he plans to stay.

Kim was born in Pomona, Calif., but moved several times throughout southern California and Oregon, but spent the majority of her childhood in Paso Robles, Calif (ages 10-15) then back to Pomona.

She was a majorette, a member of the drill team, and in the high school choir. She went to junior college for a semester at Mt. San Antonio College, then went on to Cosmetology College, obtaining a beautician's license in Calif. As the saying goes, "Jack of all trades, master of none..."

I have a lot of hobbies and interests, but do not know how to do any really well. (Editor: Don't believe everything you read.) Sewing, cooking, arts and crafts and music are a few.

Always being called the one who would have a dozen children, I ended up with only half a dozen, and enjoyed being a full-time mom until out of necessity, had to go to work at a really fun place in Sandy called Blimpies and Amigos for some friends in our old ward, Butler 12th.

Sports is another of my many likes and the Dodgers are my favorite. She is proud to say so with the outcome of the World Series.

Richard is a man of many skills. His first love is being a carpenter and is a licensed contractor in Calif. Once the garage is cleaned out and set up, the neighbors will probably get tired of the sounds of the power saw and hammering coming from the Zorads' house as remodeling begins. He truly loves to build and create and is very good at it.

He is also a taxidermist and will soon be getting his own business going. He loves to hunt and fish. Having been in the Coast Guard for 12 years and the National Guard 8 years as a boat engineer, general tour operator and surveyor. People tease him at work, saying he should be at least 90 years old for all he's done and seen and places he's been.

Richard and Kim met in December of '69 on a blind date set up by their mothers. They were married in October 1970 after Richard proposed on their second date. They were sealed in the L.A. Temple in 1973.

Richard was in the Coast Guard when Tina was born in Pomona. Tina is a real sweet young lady. She enjoys school and does very well. She plays the trombone in the Olympus High School Band, and loves the gospel and spending time in Mutual, hunting with her dad, camping and fishing with the family, and her job at Video Fun. She is a super big sister in spite of her younger brothers' complaining she's too bossy.

In July 1973, Jason was born in Hemet, Calif. He is an extraordinary child. He does well in school when he wants to, is a great artist, plays the drums, had ambitions of being a gymnast and was very good at it until one or two moves found us without a coach, is a super baseball player hoping to play for the Dodgers, and is the family comedian as well as a big tease!

In July 1975, Jeffrey came along, born on the Marine base at Oceanside, Calif. Jeff has been our charmer, is a real caring and loving brother. He just started playing the saxophone this year, is a good student, also a super baseball player, who was on the all-star team from Cedar City in '87 who came to the state championship and was whipped by Taylorsville. He loves all sports, but would love to play for the Chicago Bears. He loves to fish, hunt and camp out in the wild, roughing it!

In August of 1977, Mark was born in Portland, Oregon. Markie has always been a fun child. He's the quiet one, but shines in his good attitude about life. Does well in school, hopes to learn to play the guitar this year, has done well in Cub Scouts, just recently earning his Arrow of Light and is looking forward to the challenges ahead in Boy Scouts. He's also a great baseball player, but hopes to be a 5th grade teacher someday. He's also a great artist!

April of 1984 brought us our second daughter, Beth. Born in Astoria, Oregon. Beth is delightful when she's in a good mood. Her big blue eyes and cute smile. She's a cute artist, always drawing cute little faces and "I Love You's" to all her family and friends. Though she doesn't enjoy school as well as the others, she does well. She always loved to make up her own little songs and sing them and dance. She just enjoys life.

In August of 1984, Danny joined the family, as the same hospital in Pomona as Tina. He's been such a joy to the entire family. He loves his big brothers and does believe he can do anything they can. He's already a great baseball player and feels confident he can tackle anyone when playing football. He loves his Heavenly Father and Jesus and loves to sing and direct music in Primary, and at home. He just started preschool and loves it! He wants to go every day.

We've lived in Calif, Washington, Oregon and Alaska where we've made so many good friends and have special memories, especially Alaska where Richard served in the branch presidency and Kim in the Primary presidency. Living in a branch was a special experience. We canned over 300 cans of salmon and 200 cans of clams our first year there. Ask me about my salmon recipe!

We hope to settle down now and "deep anchor" as Richard says and make this our home.

DRAWING LESSON

DRAW A DOG IN THE SQUARES BELOW.

PRIMARY

Our Primary children worked hard to prepare the special Sacrament Meeting program on Oct. 23. We hope everyone enjoyed it. We appreciate the Gospel Doctrine class using the Relief Society Room so we could practice in the chapel.

The Primary sponsored a Halloween Party on Fri, Oct. 28, for all of the Primary children and their families. A delicious dinner of soup, break sticks, relishes, root beer, and a dessert of donuts with ice cream was served. The children went trick-or-treating in rooms down by the Jr Chapel where they were given treats in the specially decorated rooms after playing games. A cupcake walk was directed by Carolyn Scharman. The children and their parents were very spooky-looking in their Halloween costumes.

Birthdays were celebrated by teachers Virginia Bierman, Trudy Arndt and Secretary Linda Hilyard. The children celebrating were Billie Jean Hawkes, Jennifer Gleave and Kjersti McCombs.

Class presentations in October were given by the children in the classes of Virginia Bierman and Madeline Seguin.

We wish all of the children and their families a very happy Thanksgiving.

CONGRATS

Sarah Weenig is playing a role in the traditional Christmas play "Amahl and the Night Visitor" with the Salt Lake Repertory Theatre at the Utah Theatre. Performances begin Dec. 5 through Christmas.

Our girls received a Participation Ribbon for their play in volleyball.

Cal and Leola Montague received their endowments and were sealed in the temple Oct. 6th. A lovely open house honored at the home of Wayne and Betsy West.

Congratulations to Brett Barker who received a sustaining vote for his ordination to the Melchizedek Priesthood.

Iris Beattie submitted a recipe to the American Dairy Association and her entry won the contest, bringing her the $100 prize. It's for groceries at her favorite store.

Louise and Winston McOmber have been called to the England Manchester Mission. They leave Nov. 30. Stan and Michelle will live in the family home while they are gone. Karen leaves Nov. 4 for Saudi Arabia to be with her husband.

Calvin Montague received approval for his ordination to the office of high priest.

Baptized and confirmed were Joshua Hansen, Nick Boulton and Karen Vargo.

Danny Hansen received a Certificate of Merit for being represented in the 1987-88 edition of Who's Who Among American High School Students. Students recognized in this national publication are commended for their high standards of excellence, community leadership and positive performance.

Danny is sports editor for the Brighton Bark and his biography has been accepted for publication in the 22nd annual edition of Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Danny Hansen was a member of the Brighton American Legion Baseball Team. The team participated in local league play, tournaments, and competition in Denver.

Bruce Jones was called as a member of the Stake High council.

Pymm and Judi Chartrand have been called to the Tabernacle Choir! We'll be watching the TV screen for you.

Cameron Copeland won the Deseret News football picks this month by choosing 11 out of 11 winning teams correctly and the designated score within 4 points. He received $100. He put it in his bank for his trip to pick up his brother in Brazil after Kevin's mission (hopefully).

Ryan Beattie graduated from Primary and has become a deacon.

Greg Oster, Amy Young and Jenny Weenig had the opportunity, as part of the Brighton Madrigals, to sing in the Grand Festival Concert at the Tabernacle.

WEDDING BELLS

Steve Doty married Thea Jorgensen on Sept. 30 in Dallas, then honeymooned in Las Vegas. He works for Delta Airlines.

Jack and Jackie also have a new great grandson, born Sept. 11. Their daughter, Louise, is the grandmother.

BABY NEWS

Don and Lee Herzog are proud grandparents of Scott Jamison Herzog, son of Randy and Lou Herzog born on Oct. 16.

David and Glade Young welcomed a new granddaughter Kendra Ann Ames on Oct. 17. She is the daughter of Jody and Ken Ames.

Bob and Carol Mayfield were in Logan to welcome their new granddaughter Aubri Ann, born Oct. 27. Lisa and Mark Buttors are proud parents. This is their first child and Bob and Carol's 10th grandchild.

Henry and Lou Jean Middleton's son, Brent, and his wife Tracy welcomed a new baby boy born Sept. 9. He is Christopher Todd. They have one other son and live in San Jose, Calif.

A new baby, Jeffrey Todd Noble was given a special blessing in Sacrament Meeting.

Rudy and Kathy Siebenhaar are the proud grandparents of Riley James Hein, born to their daughter, Marian and Ron Hein on Aug. 15.

If it isn't painful, you aren't putting forth enough effort to win.

NOTICE

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas in the Brighton 1st Ward. The Activities Committee has a delicious dinner and fun entertainment planned for the Family Christmas Party on Friday, December 2. Please circle that date and plan to attend.

Men's basketball will start this next week. Listen for announcements. Age groups, 14 & 15, 16 to 18, and over 30.

Any women wishing to play volleyball, please call Debbie Smith right away. Phone: 932-8908.

Scorekeepers are needed for girls basketball. A clinic will be held soon.

Be sure to support our ward members called to assist in the effort to help you renew your subscriptions to the Church publications. Do it when they call so you won't miss even one edition. Then read 'em!

Joyce Skidmore is directing and adapting the play "Family Portrait" for the December 8th performance at the Art Barn. One show, 7:30 PM, admission is free, but donations accepted. It is the story about the family life of Jesus Christ. This play has won many awards on Broadway.

Barbara Tea, ward librarian, reports the pile of children's books, toys, scriptures, ties, etc. (lost and found items) is growing in the library. Please stop by and claim your items.

Women's basketball will start soon. If interested, call Debbie Smith, 943-8908.

This Tuesday is Election Day in our country. We encourage each of you to make your wishes known by ballot--an expression of your choice and your freedom in this land.

By the middle of Nov, girls basketball practice will start. We hope to see all the girls there.

The all-state choir of over 700 voices gave an impressive performance. Their magnificent rendition, in concert with the all-state band of The Battle Hymn of the Republic rivaled that of the Tabernacle Choir! Bravo!!

Kelly Jacobsen (Joyce and Pete's son) just happened to be visiting Dorsey, Maryland where their ancestors are buried at the same time Joyce was given the incentive to do genealogy work on her ancestors in Dorsey. How's that for strengthening a testimony about family research?

GET WELL

Pete Skidmore is recovering well from disc problems in his back.

Sacrifice is the evidence of true love.
